

Lee Says:

WE'VE been busy the PAST few days taking INVOICE—listing every ITEM of merchandise IN our store, from (big article) down to (small article) and BELIEVE us, it's a big JOB—and speaking very CONFIDENTIALLY we're ALMOST afraid to look AT the totals to see IF the past year's BUSINESS has been red OR black, but we're HOPEFUL, and besides WE'VE had a lot of FUN trying—but getting BACK to the subject OF invoicing, we have JUST discovered that WE have entirely too MUCH Candy in STOCK, which being the CASE, we've decided to SHUT our eyes and mark 'EM down real low, ONE and two pound BOXES from 59 cents TO a dollar nineteen IT'S our treat— GUESS we used poor JUDGMENT and bought TOO MUCH.

The Winnetka Rifle association expects very shortly to take up with the Village council the matter of providing an indoor range, it was stated this week.

The association, at the time of its formation last spring, had two things uppermost in mind, the first being the organization of a club under the National Rifle association, whereby men interested in rifle shooting are permitted to shoot on the Government range at Fort Sheridan.

Back of the second object is the belief on the part of many of the men of Winnetka, that the members of the police department of the village should be provided with a place for practice in revolver shooting, and through the organization of a rifle association, it is felt, the village government might be brought to see the importance of providing the indoor range.

In the instance of the members of the Winnetka Rifle association, rifles and arms are available to them any week-end, at Fort Sheridan, where two or three highly interesting shoots have already been held, one for a silver trophy last November, in which twenty-five men participated. Another shoot will be held in April.

Francis W. Parker, Jr., is president of the association; J. M. Dickinson, Jr., vice-president; L. M. Beale, secretary. L. H. G. Bouscaren is chairman of the general committee on membership and armament

Little Daughter of Otto Dreibus
Fatally Injured

Vettrice Dreibus, the little three and one-half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dreibus, of 271 Poplar street, was fatally injured by an automobile at Sheridan road and Elder lane, Winnetka, Wednesday afternoon at 4:50 o'clock. Her death occurred at the Evanston hospital an hour later. The little girl, with other children, was in charge of a nurse maid, and darted into the street directly in the path of a car driven by E. E. Sylvester, of 1627 Chase avenue, Chicago. Sylvester swerved his car into the curb, in an effort to avoid hitting the child. He was not driving fast. A coroner's inquest was held at 612 Davis street, Evanston, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Sylvester was not held.

Confer With Teachers at Church Mid-Week Service

The Wednesday evening service at the Winnetka Congregational church next week will be a meeting in connection with that of the teachers of the church school, it is announced. The first part of the session will be of interest to the entire church. The address will be given by Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty, on "Some Discoveries on the Religious Instruction of Children." Following this meeting there will be a business session of the teachers.

The public speaking classes which are conducted by Mrs. Frederick Dickinson of 1228 Scott avenue, Winnetka, and which meet weekly in the Scout room of Community House, will be resumed this next week. The Tuesday class will meet at 9 o'clock, January 11, and the Thursday class at 10 o'clock, January 13.

Start New Year
With Impressive
Morning Service

The New Year's morning service, the first of its kind ever held in the Winnetka Congregational church, proved so inspiring and so popular that Dr. J. W. F. Davies has resolved to make of it an annual affair in future years.

The service was held at 7 o'clock and extended over a period of only 45 minutes, in which the central thought was the importance of having an aim for achievement in the New Year.

The attendance was even larger than had been anticipated. Many came directly from their New Year's festivities. Others set their alarm clocks for the early rising and returned to their homes later for breakfast.

In the address of Dr. Davies, he likened the New Year to a challenge.

"The New Year," he said, "is like a winding stairway or a mountain you have never climbed. You don't know what's coming next."

"This New Year," he said, "challenges us to a vision of what we may become. We can get the vision by looking at the best men and women we know. The best man I know is Jesus. He is nearer like God than any man I know."

And thus, with visions inspiring to better lives and resolutions to carry them on through the New Year, the object of the service was fully realized, proving helpful, not alone for the moment, but for the year now beginning.

Miss Helen Blasius of 385 Birch street and Miss H. Mary Anderson of 1014 Pine street, were hostesses at a New Year's eve party given at 928 Asbury place, Chicago, the home of a friend.
