

Leila Houghteling Taken by Death at Chicago Hospital

On the night of January 2, Miss Leila Houghteling died at the Presbyterian hospital. Funeral services were held in St. James church, in Chicago, on Monday.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Houghteling, she was born in Chicago, but came as a little girl to Winnetka, and, though living recently in the city, had spent most of her life in this Village. At the time of her death she was instructor in the Social Economics department of the University of Chicago, from which she had received her degree of Ph. D.

Much of the time of Miss Houghteling's later years had been devoted to philanthropic work. A graduate of Bryn Mawr, she was one of the founders at this institution of the summer school for working girls. She was at one time probation officer in the Juvenile court, served on the staff of the County Welfare bureau, and accomplished much work in connection with the United Charities.

Many are the friends who feel that the passing out from their lives of this bright presence means a great loss. One of these has said: "a cheerful, lovable, radiant being gone. She always looked at life in the best way, and her ever present cheerfulness and sense of humor made it a delight to be with her. Her presence we shall feel near us, as the remembrance of her is so vivid that it makes us say, in those well-known words of the poet:

"She is not dead, this friend, not dead,
But in the path we mortals tread,
Got some few trifling steps ahead
And nearer to the end"

Noted Englishwoman Speaker at Chicago Woman Voter's Forum

For north shore members of the Chicago League of Women Voters' forum, the announcement is made that Margaret Grace Bondfield, who has twice been elected a member of the British House of Commons and is the first woman to hold an under-secretaryship of Labor in England, will speak in the Florentine room of the Congress hotel, January 15, at 2 o'clock.

Miss Bondfield is constantly occupied with the English labor movement, and has the honor of being the only woman to appear at a trade-union congress and serve as an executive of it.

She will speak in Chicago on either "The Ideals of the Labor Party," or "Democracy and Education."

The hostesses for the day will include, Mrs. Willa B. Laird, president of the Chicago League of Women Voters' forum, Miss Mary E. McDowell, and Miss Agnes Nestor, who will take part in the program being arranged by the Winnetka league at its legislative forum. Mrs. John VanderVries, president of the Winnetka league, is also included on the list of hostesses, and Mrs. Harvey Edwards, president of the Evanston league.

SOCIETY MEETS

The Woman's society held its regular meeting, Wednesday, January 5, in Community House. The morning was devoted to sewing, with the business and discussion at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Charles S. Jewell led the devotions at 12 o'clock, which were followed by the luncheon. The luncheon was served jointly by the Jewish Sisterhood and the society, with the address of the day following.

20 Things that need Safe Deposit Box Protection

HERE is a list of twenty things the people keep safe in our safe deposit vault. The cost is a penny or two a day. You can keep any of the following articles safe in the same way. Check the list.

1. Birth certificates.
2. Marriage certificates.
3. Discharge papers.
4. Pedigreed stock records.
5. Securities of all kinds.
6. Insurance policies.
7. Deeds.
8. Abstracts.
9. Certificates of Deposit.
10. Jewelry.
11. Unset stones.
12. Mortgages.
13. Contracts.
14. Leases.
15. Receipts.
16. Wills.
17. Letters.
18. Heirlooms.
19. Business records.
20. Liberty Bonds.

WINNETKA TRUST and SAVINGS BANK

Elm Street at Center

EXTRA SPECIAL for SATURDAY

Legs of Lamb
38c lb.

Fancy Florida Grapefruit, Per Doz. 88c

Fancy Florida Oranges, 3 Doz. 98c

SPECIALS FOR MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY

SOAP FLAKES
Large Size Ivory
4 Pkgs. $1.00

PEAS
B. S. Small Sifted
Doz. Cans $2.90

Winnetka Co-Operative Co. Grocery and Market

Phones 51-52-53

718 Elm St.