Minturn Players Present "Family Upstairs" Next

The rollicking Broadway comedy hit, "The Family Upstairs," which will be presented by the Minturn Players at the New Evanston theatre the week of January 10, is characterized as a cleverly designed laugh play by the well known humorist and playwright, Harry Delf. It is an American comedy of types, and these types have never been etched more sharply nor pointed more clearly. "The Family Upstairs" is, in truth, any family upstairs. You know them instantly. They are the folks who turn on the radio at unheard of hours of the morning when you want to sleep, and who want to sleep when you want to turn on the music.

John Huddle, son of the Wiley J. Huddles of 794 Rosewood avenue, returned this past week to the Indiana State university to resume his studies.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoopes, formerly of Glencoe, Ill., and Columbus, Ohio, have just moved into their new home at 1011 Ash street, Winnetka.

Thomas E. Stutson of Boston, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Warren C. Agry of 711 Locust street over Christmas and the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Beach of 532 Oak street left Tuesday night, January 4, for Tuscon, Ariz., to spend three or four months.
