

Offer "Melody Way"
Recital to Show
Miessner Method

"Melody Way" classes in the Miessner method for piano, now being taught in Hubbard Woods school under the direction of Estelle Pilleo, and at Horace Mann school, in Winnetka, in charge of Helen Pilleo Weston, will join in a recital program at Hubbard Woods school auditorium, Saturday evening, January 8, at 7:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Weston is at the head of the Miessner work in all of the north shore towns, having recently given several splendid recitals in Wilmette and Kenilworth. Miss Pilleo is widely known as the composer of "Out Where the West Begins" and a special feature of this program will be the singing of a group of her songs by Edward Davies, accompanied by the composer.

Seventy-five children will take part in the affair, playing in groups and demonstrating the principles of melody, harmony, and rhythm which have won for the Miessner method so high a standard in many of the best schools of the country. All who are interested in fostering the love of music in the home and in the school are cordially invited to attend the recital and listen, along with the parents and friends of the young players. There is no admission charge.

WHAT PRICE GLORY

A picture said to be the first photoplay which has clicked 100 percent with Chicago reviewers, "What Price Glory," is a prodigious picturization now on the screen at the Garrick theater, Chicago. It is playing there to capacity houses. A symphony orchestra and a crew of 30 working effects back stage, make the whole a performance of rare caliber. It is a William Fox production. There are two afternoon performances, the first at 2:15, and an evening show at 8:15. All seats are reserved.

Mrs. S. S. Holden, 527 Warwick road, Kenilworth is entertaining her luncheon club today.
