HEAR DRAMA LEADERS

New Trier High School Dramatic Club Announces Series of Special Discussions This Winter

BY G. W. C.

The Dramatic club of New Trier high school has always tried to be more than just an ordinary dramatic club. The members have strived not only to give fine impersonations in the plays in which they act but also to understand the underlying ideals of dramatic work.

They have always realized, of course, that their part in drama was only a very small bit, but this has not kept them from reaching out toward greater work. Always have they wanted to get in touch with people who know and understand the great plays of the world and with people who really are splendid at the art of impersonation and characterization.

Almost every one in the Dramatic club probably has read the play "Macbeth," and yet few of them really see the great dramatic quality of it. They can't interpret it by themselves. So it is with other things. The members feel that they need people of great experience to interpret for them and to help them to do better dramatic work in their own presentations.

This year perhaps the biggest chance of all has come to the New Trier Dramatic club. The coaches of the club have succeeded in bringing to New Trier four well-known speakers.
Here is chance for interpretation!
Here is chance for the broadening of dramatic knowledge!

On Monday, January 17, Prof. Davis Edwards of the University of Chicago will give a reading from "Macbeth." Opportunity is knocking!

On Wednesday, February 16, Prof.
Bertram G. Nelson, head of the department of public speaking at the University of Chicago, will read "Cyrano de Bergerac," one of the finest of French plays. Opportunity again!

Third in the series is Prof. Frank O'Hara, who, on Tuesday, March 15, will speak on "Dramatics in a University." Who said opportunity knocks only once!

Last in the series is Miss Harriet Jane Allyn, who, on Tuesday, April 19, will present Monologues and Impersonations.

In this way, then, will opportunity knock on the door of the New Trier Dramatic club. And certainly this club is to be envied, for the speakers in this lecture series that it is sponsoring are very fine indeed and worthy of any gathering.

LADIES' AID TO MEET

Shore Methodist Episcopal church is planning an all-day meeting to take for the bazaar to be given later in the year, and will have luncheon served under the direction of a committee. The luncheon committee consists of Mrs.

Carlton Prouty, chairman, Mrs.
Charles O. Aspenwall, Mrs. Carlson,
