Broadcast School
Assembly Program

Mrs. Sidney F. Bartlett of 711 Sheridan road, Mrs. Valona Brewer, of 1077 Fig street, and Mrs. Arthur Dean of 441 Willow road, gave a unique program at 9 o'clock in the morning, Wednesday, January 12, broadcasting over WMAQ, the Chicago Daily News station.

Mrs. Bartlett, who composes music for children, who plays the piano and violin and sings, Mrs. Brewer who plays the violin, and Mrs. Arthur Dean, pianist who accompanied them, gave one of the first programs of its kind in Chicago. More than 200 schools in and about Chicago have radio sets equipped for the school assemblies, and it was for this purpose these three Winnetka musicians played.

The first group was called "Historical Song Miniatures for Children," in which Mrs. Bartlett told a short story of the life of George Frederick Handel, John Sebastian Bach and Mozart. The second number was "Barcarole," a violin duet, played by Mrs. Bartlett and Mrs. Brewer, and accompanied by Mrs. Dean. The third number was a group of songs, "The Swing," "Winkum, Blinkum and Nod," "Manners at the Table," and "The Toothbrush," which Mrs. Bartlett sang and accompanied. "The Dance of the Marionettes," followed, a violin duet, and "Vacation" sung by Mrs. Bartlett closed the program.

The program was given for children up to the fourth grade, and inaugurates a new field in broadcasting.

Mr. and Mrs. Marx Oberndorfer also broadcasted from the WMAQ station, "going on the air" at 8:30 o'clock, and giving numbers for the high school assemblies in and around the city.
