One of the country's finest lingerie makers, Gluck, Marx and Gutman, 1143 Diversey Parkway, Chicago, recently discontinued their lingerie business. As one of their clients we were offered the entire stock on hand at a fraction of its actual worth — over $2,000 worth of beautiful, newly made garments.

Chemise and Step-ins

$1.95 and $2.95

Gowns

Here are beautiful silken undergarments for the like of which you have probably been paying nearly double these prices. There are many, many styles, some embellished with French flowers, beautiful laces and embroidery and dainty tucks; others plain tailored; all showing the finest skill in needlework.

Exquisite crepe de chine garments just lifted from their tissue wrappings; in pastel shades of orchid, flesh, coral, peach, maize and nile.

If you love beautiful lingerie, you will love these garments. And if you like a bargain, you can find none greater than these at Rosenberg's now. Five garments are pictured. There are many more styles.
