

Circle Bridge Party Is Time of Reunion

The Lincoln Avenue circle sponsored a successful card party for the benefit of its treasury, Tuesday, January 11, from 2 until 4 o'clock, in the Assembly room of Community House. There were twenty-two tables of bridge in the room, which was attractively decorated in colored tissue paper, pink, yellow and green predominating.

Following the bridge at 4 o'clock a program of music and other entertainment was given. Mrs. Robert Kingery played "Romanza" by Grieg, taken from the Sonata in C minor. Mrs. Frederick Dickinson read a most amusing one-act farce, and Mrs. Guy Stuart Bailey gave a program of three songs, including "Homing" by Del Riego, "The Star" by Rogers, and "My Little House," by Pierce.

In addition to raising funds to buy materials for work in the circle, the object of this party was to bring together the old and new members of the group. Some of the older members who had been unable to attend regularly met the new members and spent a most enjoyable afternoon.

BOARD MEETS TUESDAY

The Wilmette Village board will meet in regular session Tuesday evening, January 18, in the council chamber of the Village hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dilling of 545 Essex road, Kenilworth, and their two children, Elizabeth Jane and Kirkpatrick, have returned from a visit to Palm Beach and Cuba, where they spent a month. While in Palm Beach, Mrs. Dilling's brother, Mr. Kirkpatrick, entertained more than twenty-five guests at a musicale in her honor. Mrs. Dilling, an expert harpist, played several numbers.

Margaret Walker Makes Record at Northwestern

Miss Margaret McKee Walker of 1315 Elmwood avenue, a graduate of New Trier, has distinguished herself by a number of scholastic achievements at Northwestern university this semester. Miss Walker, who won the 1926 state chemical essay prize, has just been awarded $50 for winning the competitive examination covering English, mathematics, and a foreign language, French being her chosen subject. Miss Walker is the daughter of Mrs. Francis I. Walker.

Miss Walker was the only freshman of the 2,000 entering in the fall of 1926 who passed the freshman literature test, and she was one of thirty making the super-English section, out of the 2,000 competitors. She has been elected to membership in the Poetry club of Northwestern. In the Household magazine of last month appeared a poem, illustrated, by Miss Walker.

Walter Spry Returns From New York Trip

Walter Spry, master piano teacher of the Columbia school of music, has returned from New York, where he spent the holiday week. Mr. Spry read a paper on "Piano Study" before the Music Teachers' National association, and made several records of his own compositions for the Ampico.

While in the East, he visited several of the music schools, including the Eastman School at Rochester and the Curtis School at Philadelphia.

CONVALESCING

Tom Fentress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fentress of 939 Green Bay road, Hubbard Woods, is recovering from a severe attack of bronchial pneumonia, and is convalescing nicely.

So Surprisingly Pleasant!

SO well-planned—so complete, comfortable and truly home-like—these are invariably the comments of those who visit THE ELM-GATE apartments.
Quality is everywhere apparent—plate glass windows, iceless refrigeration, superfine baths—and maid service by the hour if desired.
Yet with all these advantages the rentals are exceedingly reasonable. A few one, two and three room ef-
