

The McIlvaine Oil Burner

Why use an intermittent oil burner, when the McILVAINE, a continuous oil burner, is simpler, safer, quieter, and more economical?

Sunday Soloist

Mme. Marie Sidenius Zendt, 127 Prairie avenue, Wilmette, widely known as an exponent of oratorio and Scandinavian folk lore, will be the soloist at the Wilmette Sunday Evening club January 16. Mme. Zendt is recognized as an artist of unusual talents who has received favorable recognition throughout the country. She is especially noted in the field of oratorio which, the critics say, has become almost a lost art. Mme. Zendt is to leave for Melbourne, Fla., next week where she will have an extended engagement at the famous Indialantic hotel in that winter resort.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Feuchtinger of 947 Oak street left Wednesday, January 12, for their home in Belle-Glade, Florida.

Davis Edwards to Give First Talk of New Trier Series

A new project in any line of work or play is always interesting, for it is the new things of life that claim the attention of the people as a whole.

Just at present there is a project on foot at New Trier High school that is arousing the interest of many people. Four well known speakers are to lecture or give readings at New Trier under the sponsorship of the Dramatic club of that school. This is a great chance, the club feels, to widen its knowledge of the drama and things dramatic.

The first speaker is Prof. Davis Edwards of Chicago university, who on Monday, January 17, at 3:15 o'clock, will give a reading from "Macbeth." The reading is to take place in the New Trier auditorium. Prof. Edwards, who is connected with the public speaking department in the Divinity School of the University of Chicago, is a splendid reader, and his voice is the kind that grips an audience, so fired is it with personality. He has had a great deal of experience as a reader and as an actor, and last spring he appeared with the Goodman theater company as "Everyman" in the play of that name. This will be Prof. Edwards' second journey to New Trier, for two years ago he read a Dunsany play before the Dramatic club there.

Although this lecture series is primarily for students, it is also open to the public as a whole. And anyone who is interested in dramatic work will be welcome.

The dates for the other three lectures are February 16, March 15, and April 19.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Greenhalgh of 692 Ash street entertained twelve guests at dinner and bridge Saturday night, January 8, at their home. The guests included Evanston, Chicago and Wilmette friends.
