Resolved—

"That I will square up with all my creditors. I will not worry over debts, I will pay them up!"

This Company has a plan whereby loans may be made to pay off merchants, doctors and trades people. The Plan is simple, the cost is low, and repayments are easy.

A hundred dollar loan cost less than $8.00, and is repaid in equal weekly payments; monthly or semi-monthly payments may be arranged. No Chattel Mortgage or Wage Assignment.

Come in and let us explain our plan and let us aid you to get "squared up."

This Company is locally owned and controlled by leading business men of Evanston.

"JUDITH" IN AMERICAN PREMIERE AT CHICAGO

Mary Garden to Sing Title Role in Piece January 17; Opera
 Season in Final weeks

The repertoire for the last two weeks of the Civic Opera at the Chicago Auditorium, which will bring the season to a close, has been announced. Starting off with the long-promised American premiere of "Judith," which is the most eagerly awaited operatic novelty that America has been promised in many years, the fortnight will contain repetitions of "Don Giovanni" and other great successes of the earlier weeks, and single performances of "Madame Butterfly," "Faust," "Gianni Schicchi," "Hansel and Gretel," "Boris Godunoff" and "The Masked Ball."

Saturday night "Tiefland" will be repeated at popular prices, in English, with the same cast that introduced it to the repertoire—Elsa Alsen, Forrest Lamont and Giacomo Rimini; Weber conducting.

Sunday matinee, January 16, the season's last performance of "The Jewess" will be given, with Rosa Raisa, Eide Norena, Charles Marshall, Alexander Kipnis, Jose Mojica; Serge Oukrainisky and ballet; Weber conducting.

Garden in Title Role

Monday evening, January 17, the American premier of Honegger's opera, "Judith," will be given, with Mary Garden in the title role, and Clara Shear, Cesare Formichi and Edouard Cotrouil; Polacco conducting. Followed by Puccini's short opera, "Gianni Schicchi," with Eide Norena, Lorna Doone Jackson, Charles Hackett, Giacomo Rimini, Virgilio Lazzari and Vittorio Trevisan; Moranzoni conducting.

Tuesday evening, January 18, "La Cena delle Beffe" will be repeated with Claudia Muzio, Eide Norena, Lorna Doone Jackson, Irene Pavloska, Anna Hamlin, Antonio Cortis, Theodore Ritch, Luigi Montesanto and Virigilio Lazzari; Polacco conducting. Followed by Serge Oukrainisky and ballet in the world premier of "The Elements"; Frank St. Leger conducting.

Wednesday evening "Samson and Delilah" will be repeated with Cyrena Van Gordon, Charles Marshall, Cesare Formichi and Edouard Cotrouil; Oukrainisky and ballet; Weber conducting.

Thursday evening "L'Amore dei Tre

Re" will be repeated with Mary Garden, Fernand Anseau, Giacomo Rimini and Virgilio Lazzari; Moranzoni conducting.

"Faust" Friday Evening

Friday evening the season's only "Faust" will be given, with Edith Mason, Irene Pavloska, Maria Claessens, Charles Hackett, Desire Defrere and Vanni Marcoux; Polacco conducting. The occasion will loom big in the day's news, for the greatest experiment in the history of radio will be conducted throughout the greater part of the country through nation-wide hookup of more than a score of powerful radio stations.

Saturday matinee, "Il Trovatore" will be repeated with Louise Loring, Augusta Lenska, Aroldo Lindi and Richard Bonelli; Weber conducting.

Saturday evening a double bill will be given at popular prices, "Cavalleria Rusticana," with Claudia Muzio, Lorna Doone Jackson, Forrest Lamont and Desire Defrere; Moranzoni conducting. Followed by "I Pagliacci," with Eide Norena, Antonio Cortis and Cesare Formichi; Weber conducting.

Sunday at 2 o'clock will be given the season's only performance of "Hansel and Gretel" in English, for the benefit of juvenile music lovers, responsive to hundreds of requests. Irene Pavloska, Clara Shear, Anna Hamlin, Florence Misgen, Maria Claessens and Desire Defrere will constitute the cast. The opera will be followed by the ballet in "The Elements"; Frank St. Leger conducting.

Monday evening the last performance of "Don Giovanni" will be given with the same cast as before except that Charles Hackett will sing Don Ottavio.

Kurenka in Debut

Tuesday evening the famous Russian coloratura soprano, Maria Kurenka, will make her debut with the company in "The Barber of Seville" with Maria Claessens, Charles Hackett, Richard Bonelli, Virgilio Lazzari and Vittorio Trevisan; Moranzoni conducting.

Wednesday at 2, "Carmen" will be given as the last of the mid-week matinees at popular prices, with Mary Garden, Eide Norena, Fernand Anseau, Giacomo Rimini, Edouard Cotrouil; ballet; Polacco conducting.

Wednesday evening "Der Rosenkavalier" will be repeated with Elsa Alsen, Edith Mason, Rosa Raisa, Alice d'Hermanoy, Anna Hamlin, Lorna Doone Jackson, Florence Misgen Clara Shear, Helene Samuels, Jose Mojica,
