Winnetkan Remains As Association Secretary

The Dearborn Seminary Alumnae association held its forty-sixth annual meeting at the Fortnightly Monday. This association numbers among its members many who were school girls during the seventies and eighties. Miss Caroline McIlvaine, formerly of Winnetka gave one of her interesting talks on the social and civic growth of Chicago.

Mrs. Charles S. Williamson, mother of Mrs. Carl Zeiss of 1194 Fig street, was re-elected to the office of corresponding secretary, in which capacity she has served for twenty-six years. Mrs. Robert Nicholas of 1255 Pine street, mother of Mrs. Charles Foreman is an alumnae.

Winnetka Members at P. E. O. Luncheon

Mrs. Roy L. Arey, 929 Tower road, was chairman of arrangements for the Founders' day program, luncheon and meeting of P. E. O. at which the Oak Park chapter, B. I. acted as hostess to more than five hundred guests yesterday in the Cameo room of the Morrison hotel

P. E. O. was founded January 21, 1869 at Iowa Wesleyan college, Mount Pleasant, Iowa by seven of the college girls. One of the founders, Mrs. Mary Allen Stafford of Muscatine, Iowa, was guest of honor at the Chicago luncheon.

The sorority with a present membership of 40,000, not necessarily college women, stresses educational aid in its work. With an education loan fund of $358,158, on November 1 the organization reported that 1167 girls had made use of the fund since the founding of the society. A very active chapter has been organized in Winnetka.

"Preciousness of Jesus" Will be Sermon Subject

Rev. A. E. Rohrbach, pastor of the First Scandinavian Evangelical church, announces as his sermon topic next Sunday evening at 7:45, "The Preciousness of Jesus." The sermon will be in English. Last Sunday evening Mr. Rohrbach's pulpit was occupied by Dr. E. Michelson, of Chicago, a former well known Jewish criminal lawyer, who spoke on his experience of having been converted to the Christian faith and who said he is now "working for the advancement of his own people." The audience which greeted Dr. Michelson completely filled the church.

TEACHERS GIVE PARTY

A winter sports party for all of the teachers of the Winnetka schools was held at the Indian Hill Country club, Monday afternoon, under the direction of Mrs. Hobart Young, general social chairman, and about 20 members of the various P. T. A.'s. About 95 Winnetka teachers were present and greatly enjoyed the skating, tobogganing and other events. Tea was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Bohnen of 724 Center street have been receiving the congratulations of their friends upon the birth of a daughter at St. Francis hospital Monday, January 17. The baby, who has been named Gladys, weighed eight pounds, six ounces.
