"How good is the Lord we adore,
Our faithful, unchangeable Friend;
His love is as great as His power
And knows neither measure nor end.
'Tis Jesus, the First and the Last,
His Spirit shall guide us safe home;
We praise Him for all that is past,
And trust Him for all that's to come."

Attend Discussion on Skokie Drainage Plan

Thomas J. Lynch, George Park, A. J. Pullman, A. F. Peters and B. G. Eberly, officers of the Winnetka Chamber of Commerce, attended the annual dinner given by the Glencoe Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening of last week and participated in the discussion at that time of the matter of draining the Skokie. The Glencoe Chamber of Commerce expects to call a joint meeting of officials of the various north shore villages, soon, at which time definite plans for proceeding with this movement will be formulated.

Mrs. Ernest Reichmann of 500 Greenleaf avenue, Glencoe has left the village to spend a month or two at La Jolla, Cal. In Mrs. Reichmann's absence, Mrs. E. L. Voss, and her son, E. L. Voss of Chicago, are occupying the Reichmann home.

Local Shoe Dealer Bids for Village Property

Herman Luensman, the shoe merchant at 804 Elm street, Winnetka, has submitted a bid of $2,200 to the Village council for a piece of vacant ground 25 by 46 feet, at the south end of lot 3 on the north side of Chestnut court. The offer by Mr. Luensman was the only one received by the council in response to its advertisement for bids, and was opened at the council meeting Tuesday evening. The bid was referred to the public building and grounds committee for consideration.

BRING PETS TO SCHOOL

Children of the Horace Mann school held a rather unique assembly program Wednesday, when they brought their pets to school and told and heard stories of things animals have done. Some excitement was caused by the loss of one of twin kittens which was not found for some time.

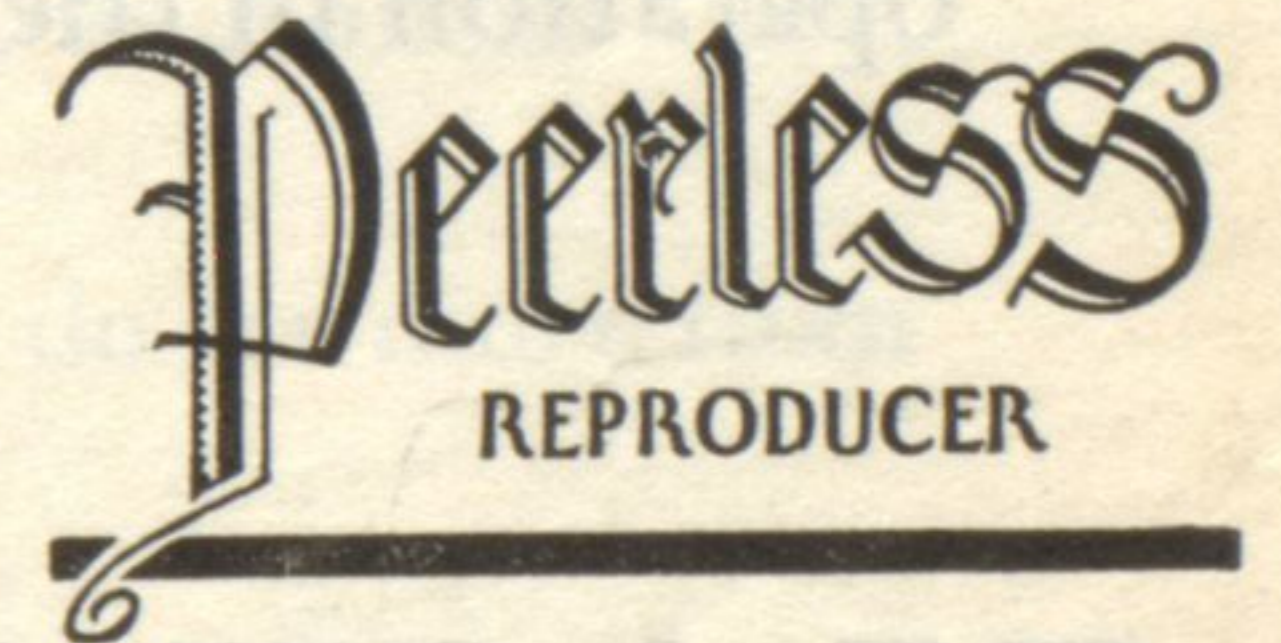

A Radio Loud Speaker Designed Like a Cathedral

Radio Speakers Are No Longer Ugly

THE new Peerless Reproducer is a work of art.
