COUNTRY DAY WINS

The North Shore Country Day school's first basketball team defeated a team from Evanston, January 12, 39 to 11. On the following day the North Shore Country Day school's heavyweight team defeated Skokie, 11 to 3 and on the same date the Skokie middleweights defeated North Shore 11 to 0.

DISCUSS SUNDAY SPORTS

"Sunday Athletics" will be the topic for discussion by the Young Men's class of the Winnetka Congregational church, next Sunday.

New Trier Debaters Line Up for Spring Meetings

Two debates are now scheduled for the New Trier debaters, according to Fred Channer debate manager. The first will take place Friday, March 18, when they meet Proviso on a question relative to the Philippine Island discussion, and the second with Morton High, the time for which has not been decided.

One change has been made in the line-up for New Trier, Duncan-Clark taking the place of Althea Northam, who recently resigned. The teams are as follows: Rollin Simonds, Henry Heineman, Sidney Rosenberg, Victor Dauber, John Erickson, Karl Yost, Frank Gilchrist, Seymour Burge and Duncan-Clark.

Restaurant Owners Take Motor Trip to Alabama

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lillig have placed the Chambers cafe, at 552 Center street, Winnetka, in the hands of Paul Reschke for ten days or two weeks while they are enjoying a motor trip into the Southland, for a visit and rest. They left Wednesday, first stopping at Morocco, Ind., where they will spend about a week with relatives, after which they will journey on down into Alabama.

Mrs. W. O. Kurtz of 1229 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods is expected to return from the Evanston hospital the latter part of this week. Mrs. Kurtz is recuperating from an operation which was performed several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Damaski of 879 Ash street announce the marriage of their daughter Mercedes to G. L. Dabe of 550 Glencoe road.

Honor Mid-Year Grads at N. K. E. C., Jan. 25

Mid-year students of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college who will graduate at the close of the present semester, will be honored at the special chapel service to be held in Harrison hall on Tuesday afternoon, January 25 at 2 o'clock.

Edna Dean Baker, president of the college, will speak on "Some Ideals in Teaching," and special music by the choir under the direction of Miss Louise St. John Westervelt, together with several numbers on the harp by Miss Marie Ludwig, will be included in the program.

Following the chapel service, the president and faculty will give an informal tea for the Mid-years, their parents and friends, in the alumnae club room.

SPORT NEW WHISTLES

Winnetka residents were startled Wednesday morning by the shrill notes of what they thought were police whistles. Upon rushing to the windows they saw their own postmen dashing about from house to house, whistling their new ivory whistles, whenever they leave mail.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Rockwell of 277 Chestnut street entertained sixteen guests at dinner, Saturday, January 15, preceding the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Wallace of 815 Mt. Pleasant road, at Indian Hill club.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Mowry of 885 Bluff street, Glencoe have left for Winter Park, Fla., to spend part of the winter. They may travel to California later in the season, returning to Glencoe in the early spring or summer.
