

Peerless REPRODUCER

Let Your Ear Decide

WE believe that among radio loud speakers, the Peerless Reproducer excels. We find it gives natural, true-to-life reproduction. It gets the low notes that loud speakers used to lose altogether. It will stand all the volume you can give it. It makes any radio better.

We invite you to come to our store, hear a Comparative Demonstration — and let your ear decide whether we are right. Come today. Listen to this amazing test. Price $35.00 in beautiful mahogany cabinet of classic gothic design.

Scout Leaders' Course Proves Popular Scheme

"Adventures in Leadership" was chosen as the name to sum up the 8 sessions of the Training Course for Adult leaders now being held each Monday night under the direction of the North Shore Scout council.

The men in the course are organized into patrols, handled just as Scouts in a troop, and are enjoying it immensely, it is stated.

More men are wanted to enroll without cost or obligation. Visitors are always welcome. The time is 7:30 o'clock.

The course schedule follows:
Monday, January 31, Glencoe Union church.
Monday, February 7, Highland Park Presbyterian church.
Monday, February 14, Highland Park Presbyterian church.
Monday, February 21, Wilmette.
Monday, February 28, Wilmette.
Monday, March 7, Lake Forest.
Monday, March 14, to be announced.

Mrs. James Austin Richards of 739 Lincoln avenue, returned Friday, January 28 from a three weeks' trip to Bellingham, and Seattle, Wash.

Keen Competition Encountered by Winnetka Cagers

Intra-mural cage competition at Skokie is becoming steadily keener as the players develop technique and the teams strive for machine-like precision in both offensive and defensive.

Teams from the North Shore Country Day school are also proving to be serious contenders for high honors, and at present only one Skokie boys' team, one Country Day boys' team and two Skokie girls' teams remain undefeated. Team standings are as follows:
