

B. W. Blow Is Regaining Health in Tucson, Ariz.

Word from Tucson, Ariz., is to the effect that B. W. Blow, well known Winnetka contractor, and president of the Winnetka Chamber of Commerce, who has been in failing health for several months, is gradually regaining full vigor in the Southwestern climate. Mr. Blow was accompanied to Tucson by Paul Reschke, Winnetka cement contractor.

Mr. and Mrs. Laird Bell of 1352 Tower road, Hubbard Woods gave a tea Tuesday from 4 to 6, in honor of Basil Sydney, who has been appearing in the North Shore Theatre guild's performance of "Henry IV." The guests of the host and hostess were the board of directors and members of the committees of the guild.

HOME FROM THE WEST

William J. Hagenah of 395 Greenleaf avenue, Glencoe, is expected to return from an extended business trip to California within a few days. Mr. Hagenah has been in the West about a month.

Miss Ruth Hypes of Evanston was hostess at a tea from 3 to 6 Wednesday afternoon in honor of her house guest, Mrs. H. S. Gilbertson, who is now residing in Lansford, Pa. Mrs. Earl White of Evanston is giving a bridge this afternoon in her honor. Mrs. A. C. Goodnow and her sister, Mrs. Samuel White, are entertaining a small group of Evanston friends who are Wellesley alumnae at a luncheon next Wednesday for Mrs. Gilbertson at the Goodnow home, 439 Hazel avenue, Glencoe. Mrs. Gilbertson will be in Evanston about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin M. deBeers of 814 Grove street, Glencoe, entertained ten couples at a buffet supper Sunday evening, January 23, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Troop of 260 Lincoln drive, who left this past week for Cuba.

Painting and Decorating

will be completed to better advantage. These interior jobs can best be done now, before the Spring rush for outside and inside work swamps your decorator.
