

PRESENT "BROWNIES"

National Kindergarten Players to Offer Play as Benefit for Building Fund of College

"The Brownies," an original dramatization of that delightful story for children, will be presented by the student players of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college in the auditorium of Harrison hall, 2770 Sheridan road, Saturday, February 12, under the auspices of the North Shore chapter of the College Alumnae association.

The play, the story of two mischievous little boys who learn from the wise old owl on the moor the secret of the brownies, has been adapted by Miss Clara Belle Baker from the story by Juliana Horatia Ewing, whose story of "Jackanapes" is perhaps more widely known. The play, with its lively mixture of fun and frolic, mystery and clever animal characterizations, is one which will appeal to children of all ages and to many adults.

Two performances of the play will be given, the first at 10:30 in the morning and the second at 2 o'clock. Miss Anna Murray, 1312 Church street, Evanston, is chairman of the ticket sale, and tickets may be secured directly from her or through other alumnae, it is stated.

Cookie brownies, candies and small novelties will be sold during the intermissions. Miss Violet Rush being in charge of the committee which is making many inexpensive little souvenir toys and favors.

Mrs. George M. Groves is chairman of the luncheon committee, which is planning to serve an attractive luncheon suitable for children and adults. Luncheon will be served between 12 and 2 o'clock, and offers a delightful opportunity of entertaining parties of children or older friends either following the morning performance or before that of the afternoon. Reservations for luncheon are to be sent to Miss Virginia Solbery at the college not later than Thursday, February 10, it is explained.

The play, which marks the fifth appearance of the student players in these children's performances on the north shore, is given as a benefit for the college building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wheelock, 132 Oxford road, returned to Kenilworth Sunday from Biloxi, Miss., where they spent a month.

Music Supervisor Gives Program at Local School

Thomas Whitney Surette, of Concord, Mass., director of music in the North Shore Country Day school, visited the music classes of the school on January 31 and February 1, when he gave two Beethoven programs to the school assemblies. This year, orchestra and music choruses all over the country are commemorating the centenary of the death of Beethoven, which occurred in March, 1827.

WIN FROM CHICAGOANS

The first team of the North Shore Country Day school defeated the Harvard school basketball team, 45 to 9, last Saturday, on which day the North Shore second team was defeated by Harvard, 10 to 9. On the preceding day the North Shore Heavies defeated Skokie 11 to 10.
