

P. T. A. News

The unexpected announcement has been made that the Parent-Teacher association of the Horace Mann school will hold a large meeting, each room holding a room meeting, followed by a general gathering with the exception of the Kindergarten, Monday afternoon, February 7, at 3:30 o'clock. At this time the teachers and parents will discuss goal cards and the bazaar being planned by the school. Tea will be served the groups at 4:30 o'clock. In view of the proposed bazaar, Monday and Wednesday afternoons, until the day of the bazaar, will be reserved for mothers to go to the Horace Mann school, and work with their children in preparation for the event.

In addition to these many plans, the interesting announcement is made that Wednesday evenings will be devoted to fathers and sons, when they can go to the Skokie school and help with the work the boys are doing toward the bazaar.

Mrs. Warren W. Shoemaker of 45 Green Bay road, Glencoe, had charge of the general meeting of the Hubbard Woods Parent-Teacher association held Tuesday, February 1, at the Hubbard Woods school which was attended by more than 300 parents. Mr. Logan, principal of the Skokie school, spoke on his "First Impressions of the Winnetka Public Schools." Following this enlightening address, Carleton W. Washburne, principal of the Winnetka Public schools, told the history of the Winnetka school system and how he came to be called to Winnetka.

Miss Marian Carswell, principal of the Hubbard Woods school has returned after a week's visit at the Normal school, Greeley, Col., where she gave a week's course to rural teachers.

Announcement is made by Mrs. Frederick Thomas, that the percentages of membership of parents in the association are, Hubbard Woods, 82%, Horace Mann, 57%, Skokie, 61%, and Greeley, 62%.

Formal Sale of Village Tract Meets With Delay

There was not a three-fourths vote of the Village Council present at the meeting Tuesday evening, and, as a result, formal approval of the sale of the vacant piece of ground, 46 by 25 feet, on Chestnut court in the rear of the Henry Luensman property, 804 Elm street, had to be deferred until the next meeting of the council.

Bids on this property were taken by the council at a previous session, the bid of Mr. Luensman, $2,200, being the only one received. At the Tuesday evening session, R. H. Schell, chairman of the public buildings and grounds committee, to whom the bid of Mr. Luensman was referred, recommended that it be accepted.

Frederick Dickinson, village attorney was instructed to draw the deed with provisions relative to compliance with building regulations in this portion of the village.

MRS. GILES PASSES AWAY

The death of Lucretia Poole Giles, wife of the late Aquila Phillips Giles, occurred Thursday, February 3. Funeral services will be this morning at 11 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Ogden Green, of 90 Locust road. Burial will be private.

Nine Illinois electric railways carried an aggregate of 34,084,492 more passengers during 1926 than in 1925. This increase is more than one-third of the total number of passengers gained by the 206 companies reporting to the American Electric Railway association during the year.

"Who Is My Brother" Sunday Sermon Topic

The topic of the Sunday evening sermon at the Winnetka Congregational church, by Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin, will be, "Who Is My Brother?" The Lord's supper will also be observed at this time. Rev. Goodwin announces that the Young Men's class which meets Sunday morning at 10 o'clock will talk about "Gambling and Betting." Rev. James Austin Richards will preach in the morning at 11 o'clock on "The Real Reason."

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Jurgensen and their son Buddy, of 426 Sunset road, left Thursday, February 3, for a two months' trip to California. They will stay at the Beverly Hills hotel in Beverly Hills, Cal.
