

Teacher and Pupil

Miss Frances Anderson, a senior at New Trier High school and a pupil of Madame Eva Goedecke, well known artist of the north shore, and resident of Wilmette, will be the soloist at the fourth concert of the matinee series to be given by the Little Symphony orchestra, conducted by George Dasch, at the New Trier High school auditorium, Monday afternoon, February 7.

Miss Anderson is an accomplished musician and has given very generously of her time and services during the past three and a half years at New Trier. She has often played the piano accompaniment to special musical numbers and plays double bass in the New Trier symphony orchestra. In addition to her work with Madame Goedecke, she has also studied with Henry Ames and Hans Pfitzner, well known German composer.

Madame Goedecke came to the north shore when genuine lovers of music in this vicinity were few and in the many years of her residence here has been one of the most devoted sponsors of north shore musical development. She was a student with Wilhelm Speidel, director of the Struttgard Conservatory of Music in Germany and was also a pupil of James Kvast, at Dr. Hoch's conservatory in Frankfort of the Main. In addition to Miss Anderson, among Madame Goedecke's better known pupils are Ethel Flentye, now an artist in Chicago, her cousin, Marie Flentye, and Pauline Pettibone of Wilmette, all well known musicians.
