

Country Clubs Commemorate Both President and Saint

Clubs Find Festive Days Time Opportune for Dinner and Dance

By MARGERY WINDES

February, teeming with birthdays of great and renowned men, and blessed with the happy celebration held in honor of St. Valentine, is to be duly recognized by the country clubs Saturday evening, February 12. Saturday, is of course, Lincoln's birthday, and the Tuesday of February 22, is Washington's. In between comes St. Valentine's day, which makes the month less austere and adds to its romance and glamour.

Indian Hill club, always a resort of socially inclined folk who either are members, or fortunate guests and friends of members, is planning a Valentine dinner dance for Saturday, February 12. Appropriate decorations and an attractive menu will add to the spirit of the occasion.

Several large private groups will take dinner together, Winnetka couples, acting as hosts and hostesses to their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Biddle of 290 Forest avenue, are having twelve or more guests for dinner at the club. Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Harris of 334 Forest avenue, are also entertaining a group of friends at dinner. The William H. Lyons of 644 Spruce street are planning a table set for eighteen friends, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Landon Hoyt, Jr., of 500 Cherry street are planning to entertain about twenty.

Skokie Country club has reserved its ballroom on Saturday, February 12, for the annual subscription dance, given under the direction of a committee of six, Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Wilder of 661 Bluff street, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Templeton of 898 Grove street, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Cunningham of 757 Bluff street.

The Ouilmette Country club is entertaining at a costume party this evening, with supper served at the club after the dance. An orchestra from Cope Harvey will play. Monday, St. Valentine's day, the club is having a special bridge party, with a 1 o'clock luncheon preceding. The feature of this party is that members will play with one partner during the whole afternoon. Valentine decorations will add to the festive air. On Saturday, February 26, the club is entertaining at one of the formal dinner dances that it gives bi-monthly. Cope Harvey will also furnish music for this dance.

Infant Welfare Perfects Plans for Fund Drive

The board of the Winnetka branch of the Infant Welfare society has perfected its plans for obtaining the funds necessary to carry on the Winnetka station of Infant Welfare for the current year. The board realizes first that the interest and civic pride of Winnetka is back of this community undertaking for the benefit of the next generation in the great city from which we commuters draw our livelihood, and second, that sufficient funds are available in the community for this undertaking. It remains therefore to collect these funds as painlessly, yes, even as pleasantly as possible.

The solicitors will meet for the first time Monday, February 14, at 10 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. George S. Parker of 200 Linden street, to divide the list of subscribers. After that they will gather weekly until the job is done, at the homes of some of the most delightful hostesses in Winnetka.

The first luncheon will be given by Mrs. Morris Wilson of 429 Sheridan road, Monday, February 21, at which there will be a very interesting speaker. The second luncheon will be given by Mrs. Lawrence Howe of 175 Chestnut street. The first week of the campaign will be devoted to old subscribers, the second to residents of Winnetka who for some reason have not shared in this undertaking, probably because they are newcomers. Several local shops have assisted by offering prizes for the campaign. Mrs. Calkins is contributing an attractive imported leather purse. Mrs. Skinner offers a delightful book and Miss Herbst has promised one of her charming objet d'art, while a friend who prefers to remain unknown is giving several smart silk sport scarfs. These exciting articles will be awarded to the following workers: (a) The solicitor who is first to complete the report on her list of names. (b) The solicitor who submits the best letter of solicitation. (c) The solicitor who gets the greatest number of subscriptions. (d) The solicitor who obtains the largest single subscription.

First prizes for all these objectives are assured and the publicity committee hopes to have second and third prizes. Prizes will be on exhibition at the regular meeting of the board Monday, February 14. It is hoped there will be 100 percent attendance, and all stay-at-homes are warned that the most promising names will be snapped up by those present.
