

Handy Andy Says— Before You Build or Renovate Your House See Us

In building, many people make the mistake of trying to economize by using an inferior quality of builder's hardware. This is a costly error, for poor quality is bound to show itself eventually and cause expensive repairs as well as dissatisfaction.

Insure long life to your home or building and lasting satisfaction to yourself by purchasing building hardware from Eckart's, who specialize on furnishing quality builder's hardware to home builders and contractors, at fair prices. An estimate on your requirements will be cheerfully given and I'm sure you'll be entirely pleased with what you buy here.

FRIENDS FETE ADAMS

Postal Associates Present Retiring Postmaster With Leather Traveling Bag as Token of Their Esteem

Saturday evening, February 5, at a social meeting of the clerks and carriers of the Winnetka post office, held at the residence of Martin S. Thorsen, 1031 Spruce street, Elmer E. Adams, who has just retired from long years of service in the railway mail service and as postmaster of Winnetka, was presented a fine leather traveling bag.

The gift, from the Winnetka post office employes to their former chief, is a token of the esteem in which Mr. Adams is held by them. It was presented by Walter Lips, secretary of the Carriers' association, who also told Mr. Adams that as he traveled on through life, it is the desire of the donors of the gift that it might always serve to remind him of the true friendship which has existed so long between them. Mr. Lips also pledged the loyal support of the employes to Mr. Adams' successor, Joseph C. Braun.

Mr. Adams, in accepting the token, replied that the greatest regret he had in retiring from the service, is the loss he sustains in being deprived of the daily association with his office associates who have made his work so pleasant. He assured them that whatever success he had achieved in the handling of the post office affairs here, he credited to the loyal support of the employes. He said he hoped the same loyalty and good fellowship would be continued towards his successor.

Rev. James Austin Richards will go to Pontiac, Michigan, Wednesday of next week, where in the evening he will speak at the annual Washington birthday given by the Congregational church of that place.

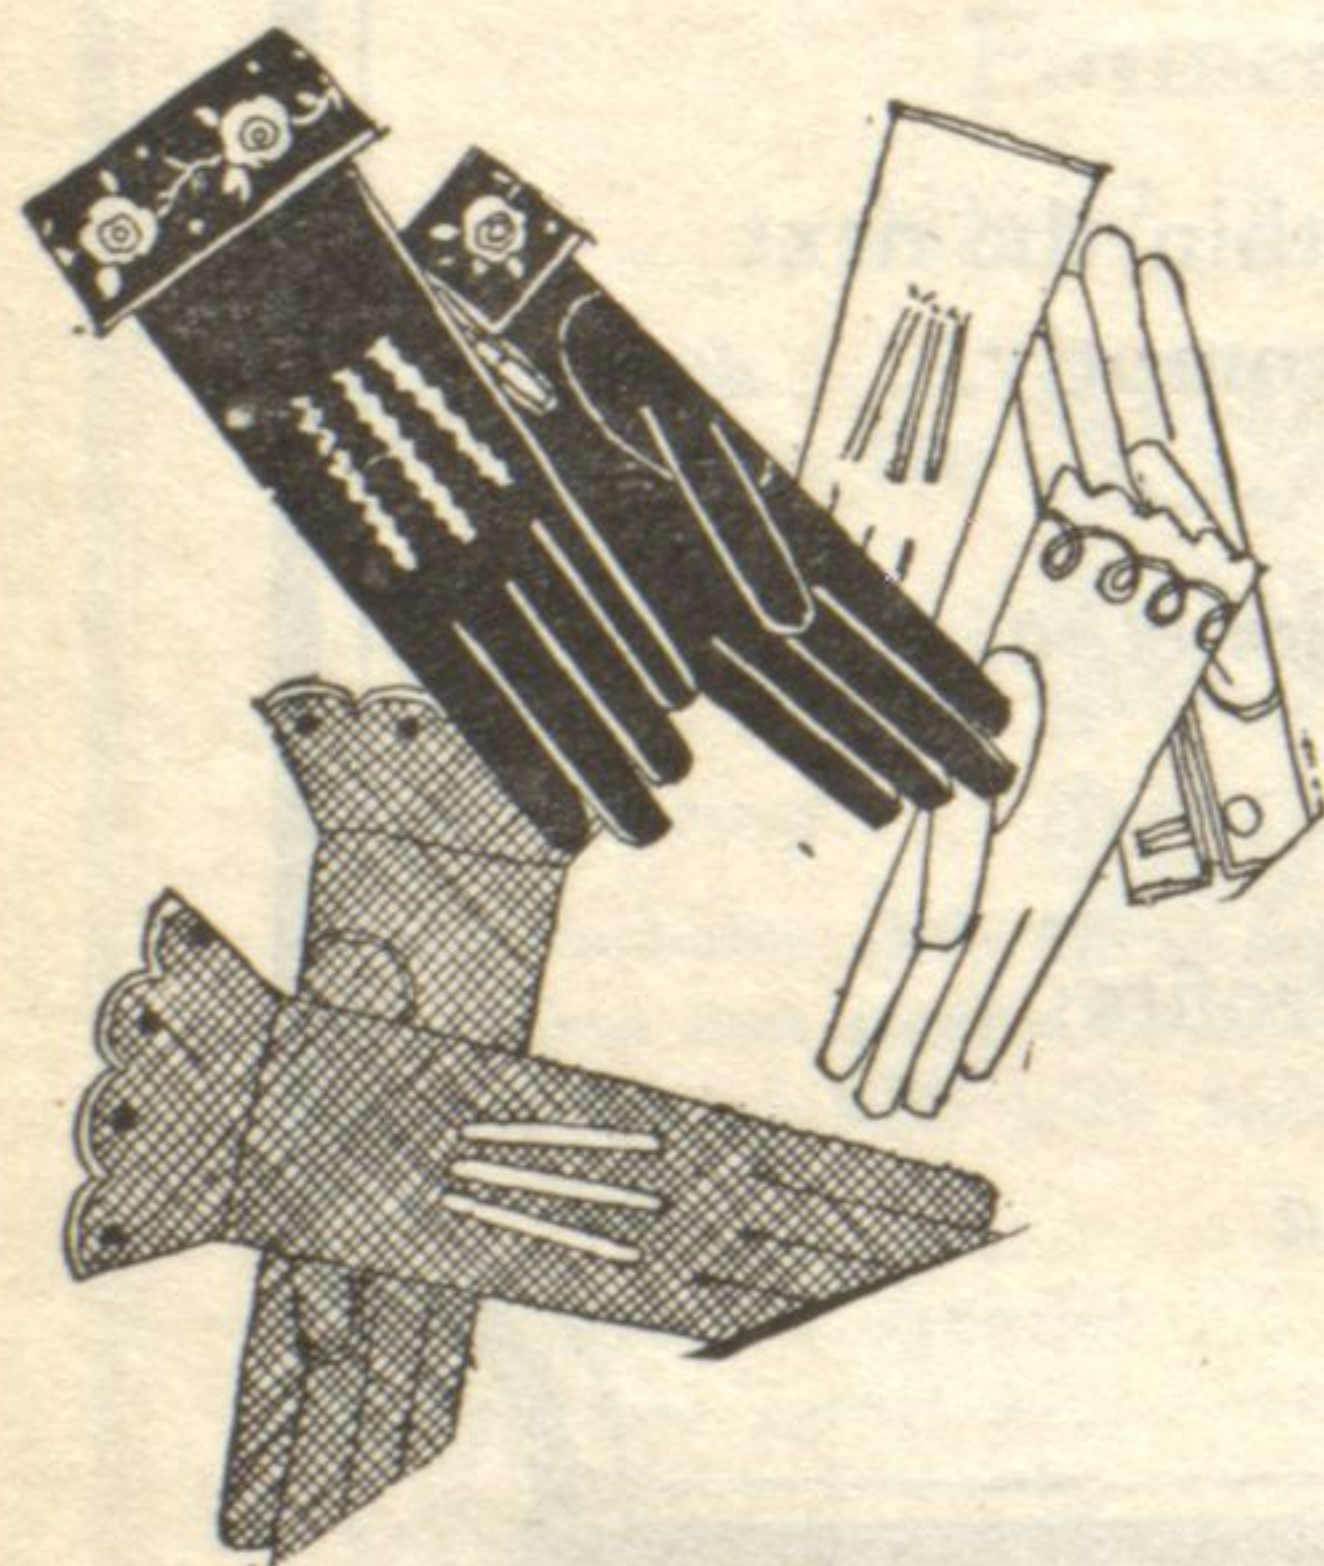

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Noyes of 220 Linden street have left Winnetka on an extended tour west. They will include Johnson, Ariz., Los Angeles and San Francisco in their trip. They will return in about a month.
