Girls, you can get a dimple in your cheek by sleeping on a collar button.

"There are several ten cent dogs in this town wearing $10 collars," remarks Fred Richardson.

Mr. Axel Erickson of Ravinia is building a new home on Woodland Ave., Ravinia. Mr. Erickson showed excellent judgment in selecting our number two Patrician face brick. These brick have been our most popular seller, and help to make an artistic home.

Mr. W. A. Snyder, the popular mathematic teacher at New Trier High school is having an attractive eight room brick-veneer residence built on Woodland Ave., south of Willow St., Winnetka. Pearson & Sax are the builders. Geo. Gonsalves is supervising construction.

Of all good things that we recall, Strawberry short-cake beats 'em all.

"Hello, Rastus, how's yo' hawks?"
"Dey's all right. How's yo' folks?"

This is a regular Solvay Coke season. More people buying it than ever. Why? Because it's made good.

Mr. M. A. Pancoe is using Balsam Wool, the famous home insulation, in the construction of his new home on Euclid Ave. Good judgment! He will realize it more, later.

"Oh, Pa!" cried a little boy when he saw his first elephant, "see that big cow with her horns in her mouth and eating hay with her tail."

Fix April 6 As Date of Bazaar at Horace Mann

Announcement is made that the bazaar to be held at the Horace Mann school, will take place Wednesday afternoon and evening, April 6. During the past week, mothers and children have been working on Monday and Wednesday afternoons on articles to be sold at the bazaar. Fathers and sons have been going to the Skokie school on Wednesday and Thursday evenings to work in the manual training department, and the reports by Mr. Norvel and Mr. Funk of that department are very enthusiastic. In this way, mothers and fathers are taking an active and vital part in making useful articles to be sold.

A. Lee Adams has very kindly reserved a corner of his Elm street drug store window display for exhibition of the children's work, and each article will be accompanied by the name of the child who made it.

Wilmette Girl Looms As Champion Swim Contender

Lillian Lusk, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. O. A. Lusk, 1514 Wilmette avenue, Wilmette, is rapidly coming to the fore as a swimmer of no mean ability. On February 8, Miss Lusk took first honors in the fancy diving event in a meet of the senior girls at New Trier High school. She came right back to annex second place in the plunge.

A week later Miss Lusk captured first place in the fancy diving event of an inter-class meet at the high school. Those who have been watching this young woman's progress as a swimmer predict she will soon be ready for real championship competition.

Precincts Vie for High Attendance on Voters' Precinct Day

"Know Your Precinct Day" in the Winnetka League of Women Voters brought out more than one hundred interested members Monday, February 14, at the Community House. Each precinct had its place at the luncheon tables and each chairman greeted her members. Mrs. I. S. Rothschild's precinct had the highest percentage of members present, so each of her members was awarded a carnation. Mrs. Rothschild was presented with an oil painting of still life by Mrs. John Vennem. It was discovered after the meeting that Mrs. H. I. Shaw's precinct tied with Mrs. Francis A. Lackner's precinct and thus shares the second honors.

Mrs. John N. VanderVries turned the meeting over to Mrs. G. T. Williams, chairman of the social hygiene committee, who introduced Mrs. Charles Butler. Mrs. Butler presented a very interesting short talk on the "Woman's Reformatory." Dr. Ralph E. Cobb was then introduced as the speaker of the day.

As coming under the social hygiene committee's field, Dr. Cobb spoke on "Venereal Diseases." This was chiefly a statistical report in which Dr. Cobb illustrated how this problem is being brought to the attention of the public and is treated. Dr. Cobb expressed the belief that women, mothers, should instruct children in sex matters.

North Shore Glee Club to Hold Masquerade Ball

The North Shore Glee club this week announced a Masquerade dance to be held in the gymnasium of Winnetka Community House, Thursday evening, February 24.

The same committee that sponsored the club's last dance at the Winnetka Woman's club has been retained to care for this affair, it is stated. Jack Schultz is chairman and has invited everyone to attend in costume, if possible, in order to make the masquerade a success. Two well known orchestras, the Black Cat Serenaders and The Skylarks, will furnish the music.

It may be of interest to know that the club has increased its membership by seven since January of this year.

CIRCLE PLANS BRIDGE

The Hawthorn Lane circle will entertain its members and their friends at a bridge party at 2 o'clock, Monday, February 21, in the Camp Fire room of Community House. Refreshments will be served by members of the circle. Anyone desiring reservations is asked to call Mrs. J. A. Donovan at Winnetka 483.
