Local Architect Wins Award

Chester H. Walcott, architect, residing at 548 Orchard lane, Winnetka, has been awarded the Gold Medal granted annually by the Lake Shore Trust and Savings bank, Chicago, for the best remodeled building plans in the North Central district. Bennett, Parsons & Frost were the consulting architects.

The plans which won the award for Mr. Walcott were those of St. Chrysostom's church, 1416 N. Dearborn street. The church building is the last unit of the group, the rectory and Parish House having been completed some three years ago.

The church contains a carillon tower, a gift of Richard T. Crane, Jr. The carrillon of forty-three bells is now being completed in England and will be the only carillon in the Middle West.

Mr. Walcott is the designer of many attractive homes in Winnetka and the north shore and has recently purchased a country home site in the new Daughaday Acres, Winnetka, where he will start early work on the building of a Norman type residence for his own occupancy.

Included in the list of patronesses announced for the benefit concert being given by Henry Eichheim the American composer, Tuesday evening, February 22, is the name of Mrs. William C. Boyden of 727 Pine street. The concert is to take place at Murphy Memorial hall, 50 East Erie street, and is given by the board of directors of the Chicago Teachers' college.

Mrs. Charles Patterson of 370 Walnut street entertained her reading club at the Orrington hotel Friday at luncheon and a review of "Our Times" by Sullivan.

Mrs. T. G. Rockwell of 277 Chestnut street, returned this week from Cleveland accompanied by her mother, Mrs. S. P. Shane.
