Horace Mann Pupils Give Two Act "Clean Up" Play

Members of the Housekeeping committee of the Horace Mann school presented an original two act play during the assembly period on Wednesday, February 16. The play was designed to call the children's attention to untidyness and to promote interest in keeping the school clean.

In the first act the scene represented a regular class room. Papers were scattered about the floor and the room was generally in disorder. It was then visited by the Housekeeping committee who pointed out these facts to the pupils and suggested that the room be cleaned up. The second act displayed a properly conducted room.

Isabel Richardson Molter Sings at Benefit Concert

With a well planned program given with a touch deft and sure, Isabel Richardson Molter, soprano, sang at the Evanston Woman's club under the auspices of the Evanston MacDowell club and the Delta Omicron sorority Thursday evening, February 10.

"Voice, brains, and personality" one critic has credited to the singer in this concert. Some of her selections particularly she gave with a fine feeling for the mood in the phrase. Harold Molter was the accompanist, and gave fine work at the piano.
