Mrs. R. A. Clemen's Father, Arthur Jones, Dies Feb. 21

Arthur B. Jones of Evanston, father of Mrs. Rudolf A. Clemen, of 650 Garland avenue, died at his home Monday, February 21, after several weeks of illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, February 23, from the home, and burial took place at Rosehill cemetery. John S. Pye and William and Florence Pye of 527 Washington avenue, Wilmette, are cousins of Mr. Jones.

Mr. Jones, who was 76 years of age, came to the United States from Wales, his birthplace. In 1875, Mr. Jones entered the employ of Marshall Field and company as Mr. Field's private secretary, remaining in that capacity until Mr. Field's death in 1906. Through Mr. Field's arrangements, Mr. Jones was made one of the trustees of the estate. At the same time he was made a director of the company and filled the position until his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Spear G. Evans of 953 Windes street are being congratulated upon the birth of a nine pound son, Tuesday, February 22, at the Evanston hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hindrum 1096 Oak street are entertaining twenty-two guests this evening at a 7 o'clock supper and bridge. The affair is really a house warming, as the Hindrums have come recently to Winnetka from Detroit.

Beware, When You Buy Roses, Is the Warning Sounded

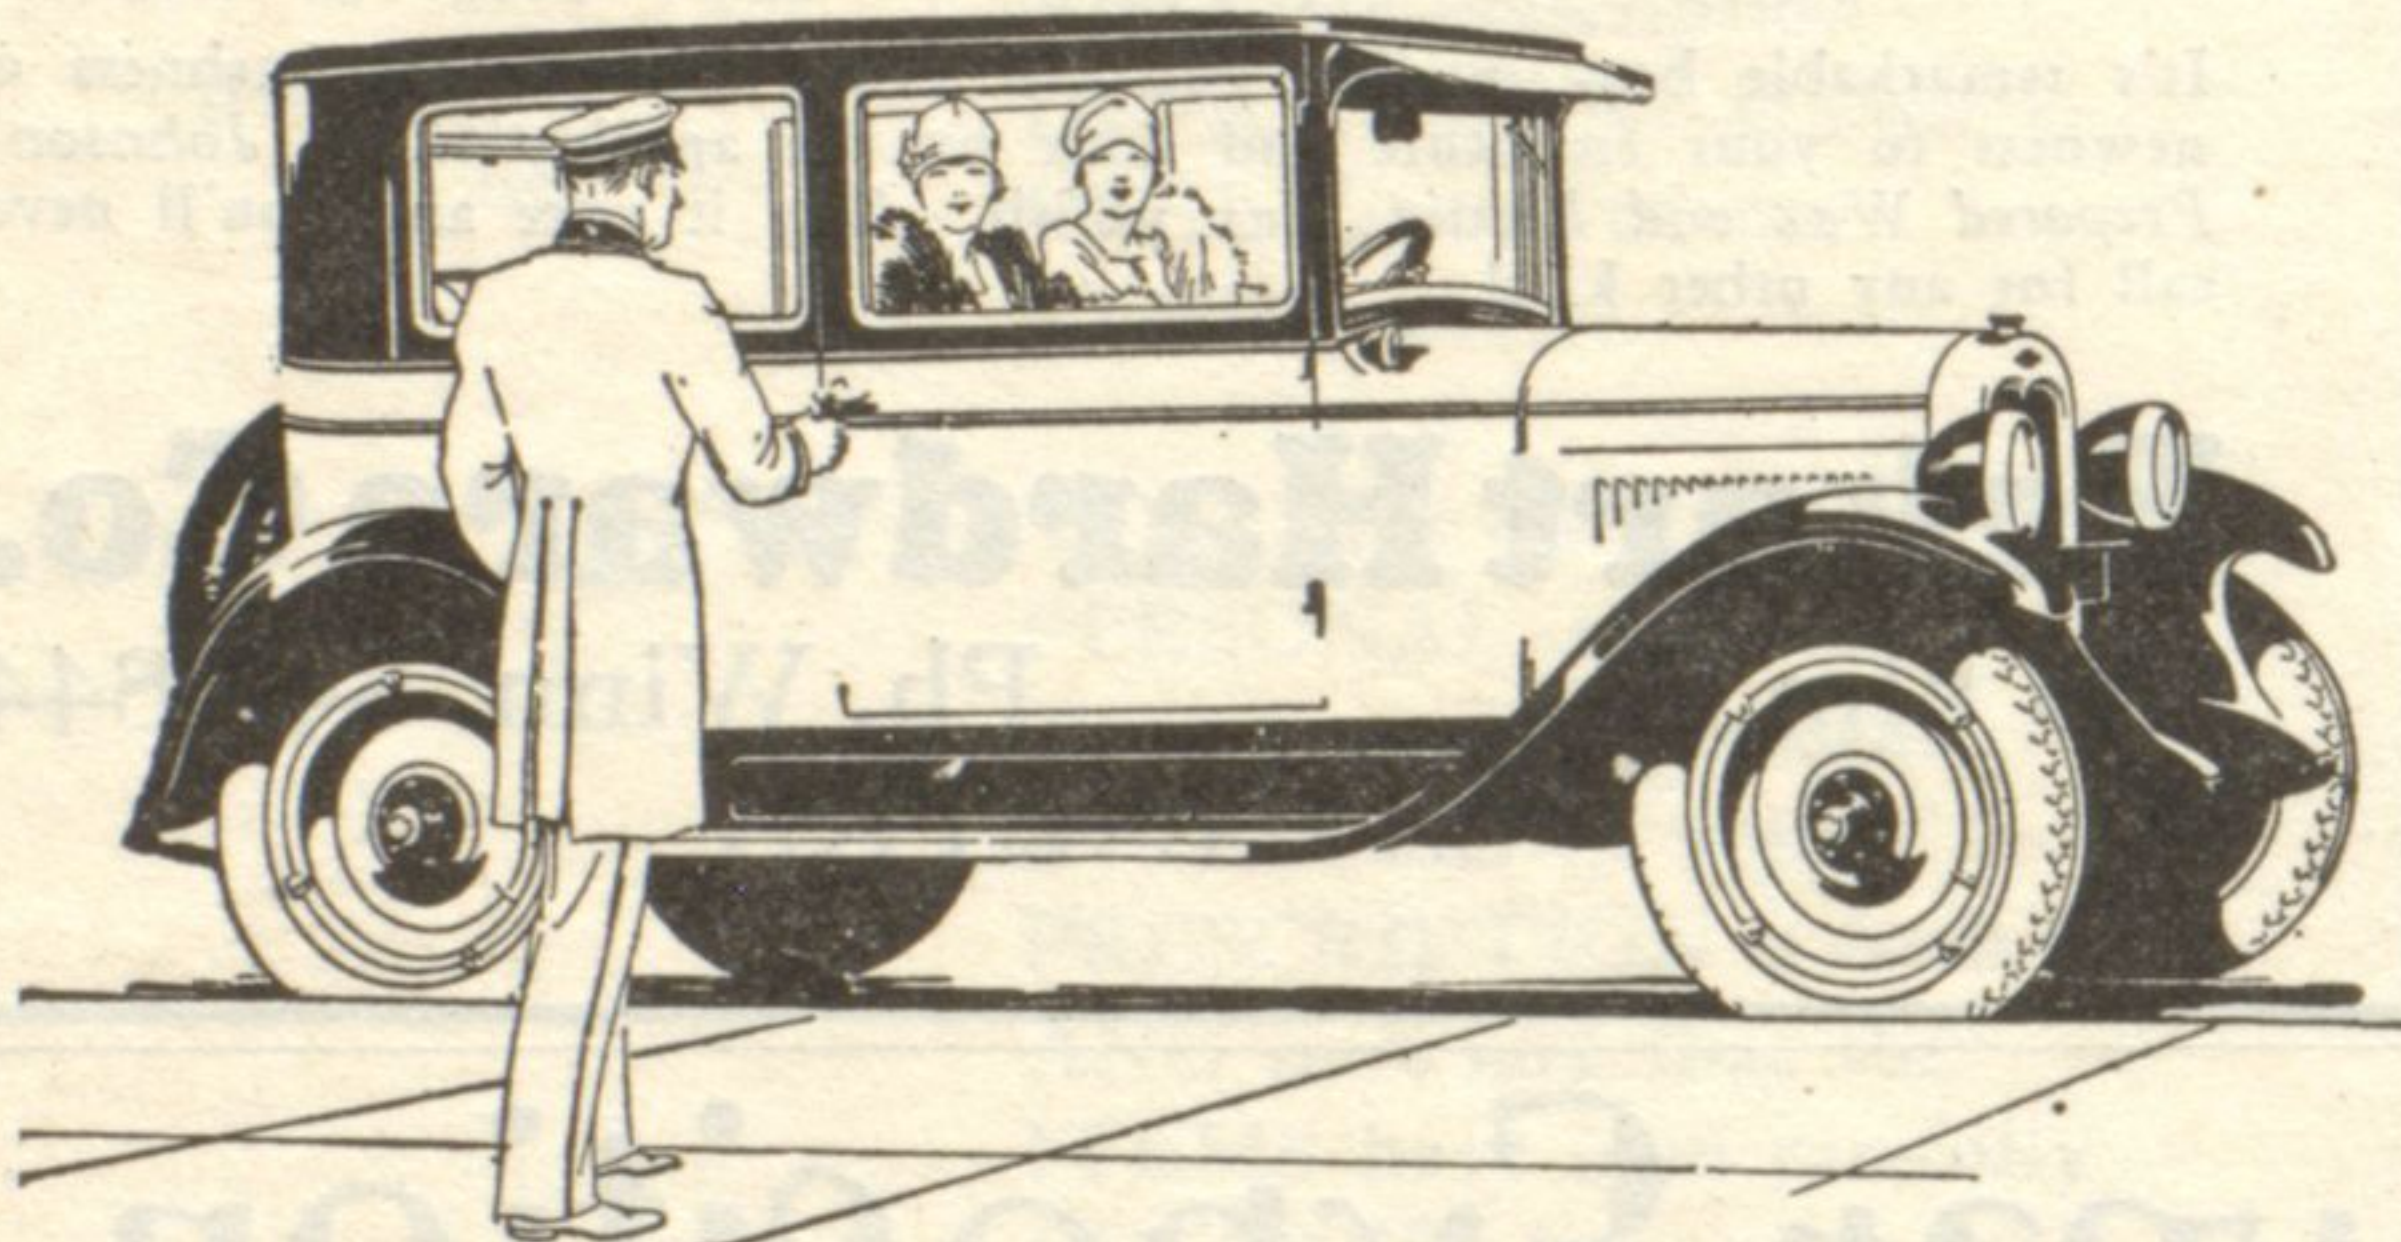

Mrs. John Lind, of 315 Richmond road, a member of the Kenilworth Garden club and the Garden Club of America, in a communication to WILMETTE LIFE, sounds a timely warning to north shore garden owners to beware of what she terms "bogus rose salesmen," whom she says reap a veritable harvest at this time of the year.

Mrs. Lind declares that last year unscrupulous firms victimized Kenilworth residents out of $1,700 and Winnetka residents out of $3,300 by selling them dried up, broken roses.

Mrs. Lind says the practice of selling this class of stock has been taken up with J. Horace McFarland, of the American Rose society, and she says he will be glad to receive any data pertaining to irresponsible dealers that anyone can send him, that the matter may be further investigated and this practice stopped.

The Current Events club will meet with Mrs. Fred Gillette Friday, March 4, at 2:30 o'clock at the Monterey hotel, 4300 Clarendon avenue. Luncheon at the hotel will precede the meeting. For further information members are asked to call Winnetka 388 or 701.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Maddox, 705 Oak street, announce the birth of a son Thursday, February 17, at the Evanston hospital.
