There is to be a large amount of building in Northbrook this season, it is said.

Will Give Benefit for Chicago Junior School

The North End branch, Friends of Chicago Junior school, will be benefited by a bridge party given by Mrs. Walter A. Kleve at her home, 7345 Seeley avenue, Saturday evening, March 5.

A rummage sale will be held this spring. Discarded clothing, shoes, furniture, or anything anyone wishes to dispose of will be very acceptable, the committee announces, and will be called for if Mrs. Mabelle R. Johnson, 636 Cornelia avenue, Bittersweet 2366, is notified that the things are available.

Prentice Players Invite Playgoers to "Twelfth Night"

The Prentice Players of Northwestern university are inviting north shore playgoers to performances of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," which is to be presented in Annie May Swift hall, Northwestern campus, on Wednesday and Friday evenings, March 2 and 4.

The comedy, "Twelfth Night," is in the repertory of two New York stock companies, the Civic Repertory company, and the American Laboratory theatre. Also, the Goodman Memorial theater of Chicago has announced this play for this year. The play was given last fall by the University of Michigan, and the Normal college of Illinois, and is scheduled to be given at the University of Iowa during the summer session.

The scenery of the play, which is all in the form of curtains, has been made and designed by the students of the scenery and costume class. A contest was held in the early part of last semester, members of the class presented scenes, and the winning scenes have been designed for the play. There are eleven scenes in the play.

The play is under the direction of Vance M. Morton of the School of Speech. The other positions of the production staff are filled by members of Prentice Players. These are as follows: Paul J. Harris, technical manager; Edna Dahlin, assistant director; Douglas Bryant, stage manager; Dulah Pulscamp, Dulla Green, Mary Snyder, and Sue Bollinger, scenic crew; Grace Hall, electrician; Eilene Doop, assistant electrician; Dorothy Parmenter, Rosetta Alk, designers; David Hutkin, business manager; Tom Goodrich, house manager; and Alice Woodworth, usher.
