Evanston's Newest and Finest Apartment Homes

Close to the lake, and to parks, Northwestern University, schools, clubs and churches. All lines of transportation readily accessible, yet sufficiently removed to in no way impair the residential advantages. Unusual beauty in the quarter acre garden court, real wood burning fireplaces in larger apartments, luxurious and well appointed lounges, convenient kitchens with mechanical refrigeration—all these will be best appreciated through a personal visit to the building. Garage in connection. Maid service by the hour if desired. Fireproof throughout.

FORM NEW TROOP

New Boy Scout troops are being formed at St. Elisabeth's Episcopal church, in Glencoe, and at the Presbyterian church in Lake Forest. In both instances a board of directors has already been appointed for the troop, and this group of men, has selected the scoutmaster and assistant.

JOINS NASH SALES

Gould C. Davis, formerly of the Highland Park Nash Sales, is now associated with the Suburban Nash Sales at Winnetka as sales manager. He is well known to the car buying public throughout the north shore.

Three Great Choirs Will Be Heard in Festival Program

On Sunday, February 27 at 4 o'clock the three great mixed choirs of the Diocese of Chicago will unite in the second annual festival service at St. Luke's church, Evanston, under the auspices of the Diocesan Choir association. Some 125 singers will be present from the choirs of St. Chrysostom's, Chicago; Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest; and St. Luke's, Evanston.

The service will open at 4:10 with organ solos by Mrs. Alice Emmons McBride of Lake Forest; followed by the chants and anthems of the regular Evensong service, and a group of organ solos played by Harold Simonds of St. Chrysostom's. In addition, the choirs will sing such distinguished choral music as the Bach anthem "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," the Stainer "Magnificat," and the 8-part Grieg unaccompanied song, "Ave Maris Stella." Arthur Ranous of Lake Forest is the baritone soloist.

The complete program is as follows:

- Organ Prelude
- Chorale Prelude on the tune "St. Anne." .. Noble
- Scherzo Pastorale .. Federlein
- Canyon Walls (from Three Mountain Sketches) .. Clokey
- Mrs. McBride
- Processional Hymn 519 .. Ancient of Days
- Anthem, "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" .. Bach
- Versicles and Response .. Tallis
- Psalms 150 .. Attwood
- Magnificat in B flat .. Stainer
- Nunc Dimittis .. Stainer
- Versicles and Response .. Tallis
- theme: "Ave Maris Stella" .. Grieg
- The Choir

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moulton, 235 Raleigh road, Kenilworth will entertain their dinner bridge club Saturday evening, February 26.
