Benjamin Carpenter Dies at His Home in Chicago, Wednesday

The death of Benjamin Carpenter, of 1545 Astor street, Chicago, formerly of Winnetka, occurred Wednesday, February 23, at his home. Mr. Carpenter, who had been in business in Chicago forty years, made his home, with his family, at 945 Sheridan road, Winnetka, for ten or more years.

He was born in Chicago September 16, 1865, the son of George B. and Elizabeth Curtis Carpenter, and was graduated from Harvard university in 1888. He was married to Miss Helen Graham Fairbank, also of Chicago, in 1893. Federal Judge George A. Carpenter, Hubbard Carpenter and John Alden Carpenter are his brothers.

Mr. Carpenter is survived by his widow and four children, Mrs. Nathan S. Davis, Fairbank Carpenter, Mrs. Thomas L. Marshall and Benjamin Carpenter, Jr.

When the World war broke out, Mr. Carpenter enlisted in the service, although many years beyond the service age. He applied for a quartermaster's job, and was ordered to Philadelphia in 1917. Until February 1919, Mr. Carpenter served actively and was a lieutenant colonel in the Q. R. M. C.

In addition to being a director of the Commonwealth Edison company and the Illinois Merchants Trust company, he served as a vice-president of the Anniston, Ala., Cordage company, and was a director of many other corporations. He was president of George B. Carpenter & Co., ship chandlers, which operates a plant near Wells street, on the north bank of the river. He also was a former president of the board of trustees of the St. Charles School for Boys.

Included in the clubs of which Mr. Carpenter was a member are, the Saddle and Cycle, Chicago, Onwentsia, Chicago Yacht, Cliff Dwellers, and Commercial. He also served as president of the Commercial club, and was a member of the Harvard Club of New York.

Swimming Classes Given for Children of Township

Swimming classes, open to any child under 16 years of age, living in New Trier township, are being held at the New Trier High school every Saturday morning. The classes are of an hour's duration and over 53 people have learned to swim in the past three weeks, it is said. The boys' section is held from 9 o'clock to 10; the girls' from 10 to 11 and the beginners class from 11 to 12. Anyone interested in being enrolled in the classes should communicate with Edgar B. Jackson at the New Trier High school. A small fee is charged to aid in defraying the expenses incurred in the courses.

ATTENDS DALLAS MEETING

Superintendent Frederick E. Clerk, of the New Trier High school, will attend the meeting of the department of Superintendents of the National Educational association which will be held in Dallas, Texas, this week.

Myron T. Harshaw of 535 Willow road is chairman of the founder's day committee of the University of Wisconsin club of Chicago, which gave its annual dinner at Maillard's restaurant yesterday.

To Milwaukee— a service designed for YOUR convenience

THERE has been a steady increase in Milwaukee travel on the North Shore Line. The reason for it is self-evident.

People like the idea of a transportation service that adjusts itself to their convenience. That is what North Shore Line service really does. So frequent is the service to Milwaukee that you need never arrange your plans more than an hour before you leave!

Limited trains from here connect at North Chicago Junction with Milwaukee trains operating every hour both day and evening. You are whisked directly into the business heart of Milwaukee—at Sixth and Sycamore streets—saving time and taxi fare.

Milwaukee trains carry dining cars at meal times, and parlor-observation cars as scheduled. All Milwaukee trains stop at Kenosha and Racine.

Those desiring to take Milwaukee trains from Chicago will find our Loop station (Adams and Wabash) and our North Side stations (Grand Ave., Wilson Ave., or Howard St.) a real convenience. All Milwaukee trains stop at these stations.

For schedules, fares and other information, inquire at ticket office.
