

WINNETKA TALK

Saturday, March 5, 1927

Relinquishes Presidency

Winnetka this spring loses the services of Village President John S. Miller, who has held that office through four consecutive terms. President Miller has made his decision to sever official connection with the village at the expiration of his term in April. He has been at the helm during the period of Winnetka's most amazing development and has established a standard of excellence in administration that will be difficult to maintain.