Harriet Mason Soloist at Noon Concert March 11

Harriet Mason, 14 year old pianist, will be soloist at the Kimball noon concert March 11, from 12:30 until 1:30 o'clock. Harriet is a north shore girl now living in Chicago. Musicians and critics agree that for the length of time Harriet has studied and for her age, her progress is remarkable. She plays the piano with a technical facility and emotional response that many grown-ups would give a good deal to possess.

Harriet will play two groups, the first, "Rondo Capriccioso" by Mendelssohn, and "Etude" in D flat by Liszt; the second, "Pastorale" and "Capriccioso" by Scarlatti, and the "Hungarian Rhapsody," number 15, by Liszt.

Allen Bogen, organist, will play several selections.

Father Lynk to Study Conditions in Europe

The Rev. Frederick M. Lynk, S. V. D., chaplain of St. Francis hospital and editor of "The Christian Family," is busy preparing for a six months' trip to Europe and the Orient.

Fr. Lynk

It will not be a pleasure tour but primarily a study trip. He will leave on the North German Lloyd steamer "Berlin," March 31, and after a brief sojourn in the mother house of the missionary society of the Divine Word, of which he is a member, in Holland, and a visit with some relatives in the Rhineland, he expects to motor through southern and eastern Germany and then visit England and Ireland, France, Spain Italy, Greece and Palestine and possibly see also a bit of Turkey and the Balkan states.

He has been engaged by several national magazines to write articles on forthcoming events in various parts of Europe. He has equipped himself with a portable typewriter, several cameras, and a cine-kodak, and hopes to make good use of all of them. During his absence, the Rev. Haarman, S. V. D., will take his place.
