

WOMEN VOTERS HEAR OF VILLAGE AFFAIRS

Winnetka Day and Fifth Anniversary Is Observed by League of Women Voters

The monthly meeting of the Winnetka League of Women Voters was held Monday, March 14, at Community House. Mrs. James Wigglesworth and nine members of her 25th precinct served a most delightful luncheon.

Special guests for this meeting were Mrs. W. J. Huddle, Mrs. Randolph Buck, Mrs. W. F. Brown, Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty, Mrs. Eugene Sax, and Mrs. Green, representing various women's groups. More than 120 women attended this interesting "Winnetka Day" program.

Mrs. John N. Vander Vries presented Mrs. Walter Benson, chairman of the finance committee, who spoke on her recent trip to Springfield to attend the General Assembly where the bill on "Women on Juries" came up.

This meeting also marked the fifth birthday of the League of Women Voters, and Miss Elizabeth Gemmell, first president of the league, was introduced by Mrs. Vander Vries, present president, and asked to preside for the afternoon.

Miss Gemmell then presented H. L. Woolhiser, village manager, who gave a most interesting talk on village government.

Mr. Woolhiser distributed outlines of local government under the following headings: 1. Village government. 2. Park district. 3. Winnetka school district No. 36. The governing bodies and functions of each department were discussed.

W. M. Peterson, Winnetka chief of Police, gave a talk on understanding the work of the police in enforcing the traffic laws. The work of educating the people to this end is being undertaken, he said. The chief requested that every driver acquaint himself with state traffic laws that he may avoid difficulties.

Mrs. Carrie B. Prouty followed, speaking of the Winnetka public library. The growth of the library has been so great that the need for a new addition is felt. Plans for this have been drawn up with the hope that the people would be favoring the plan.

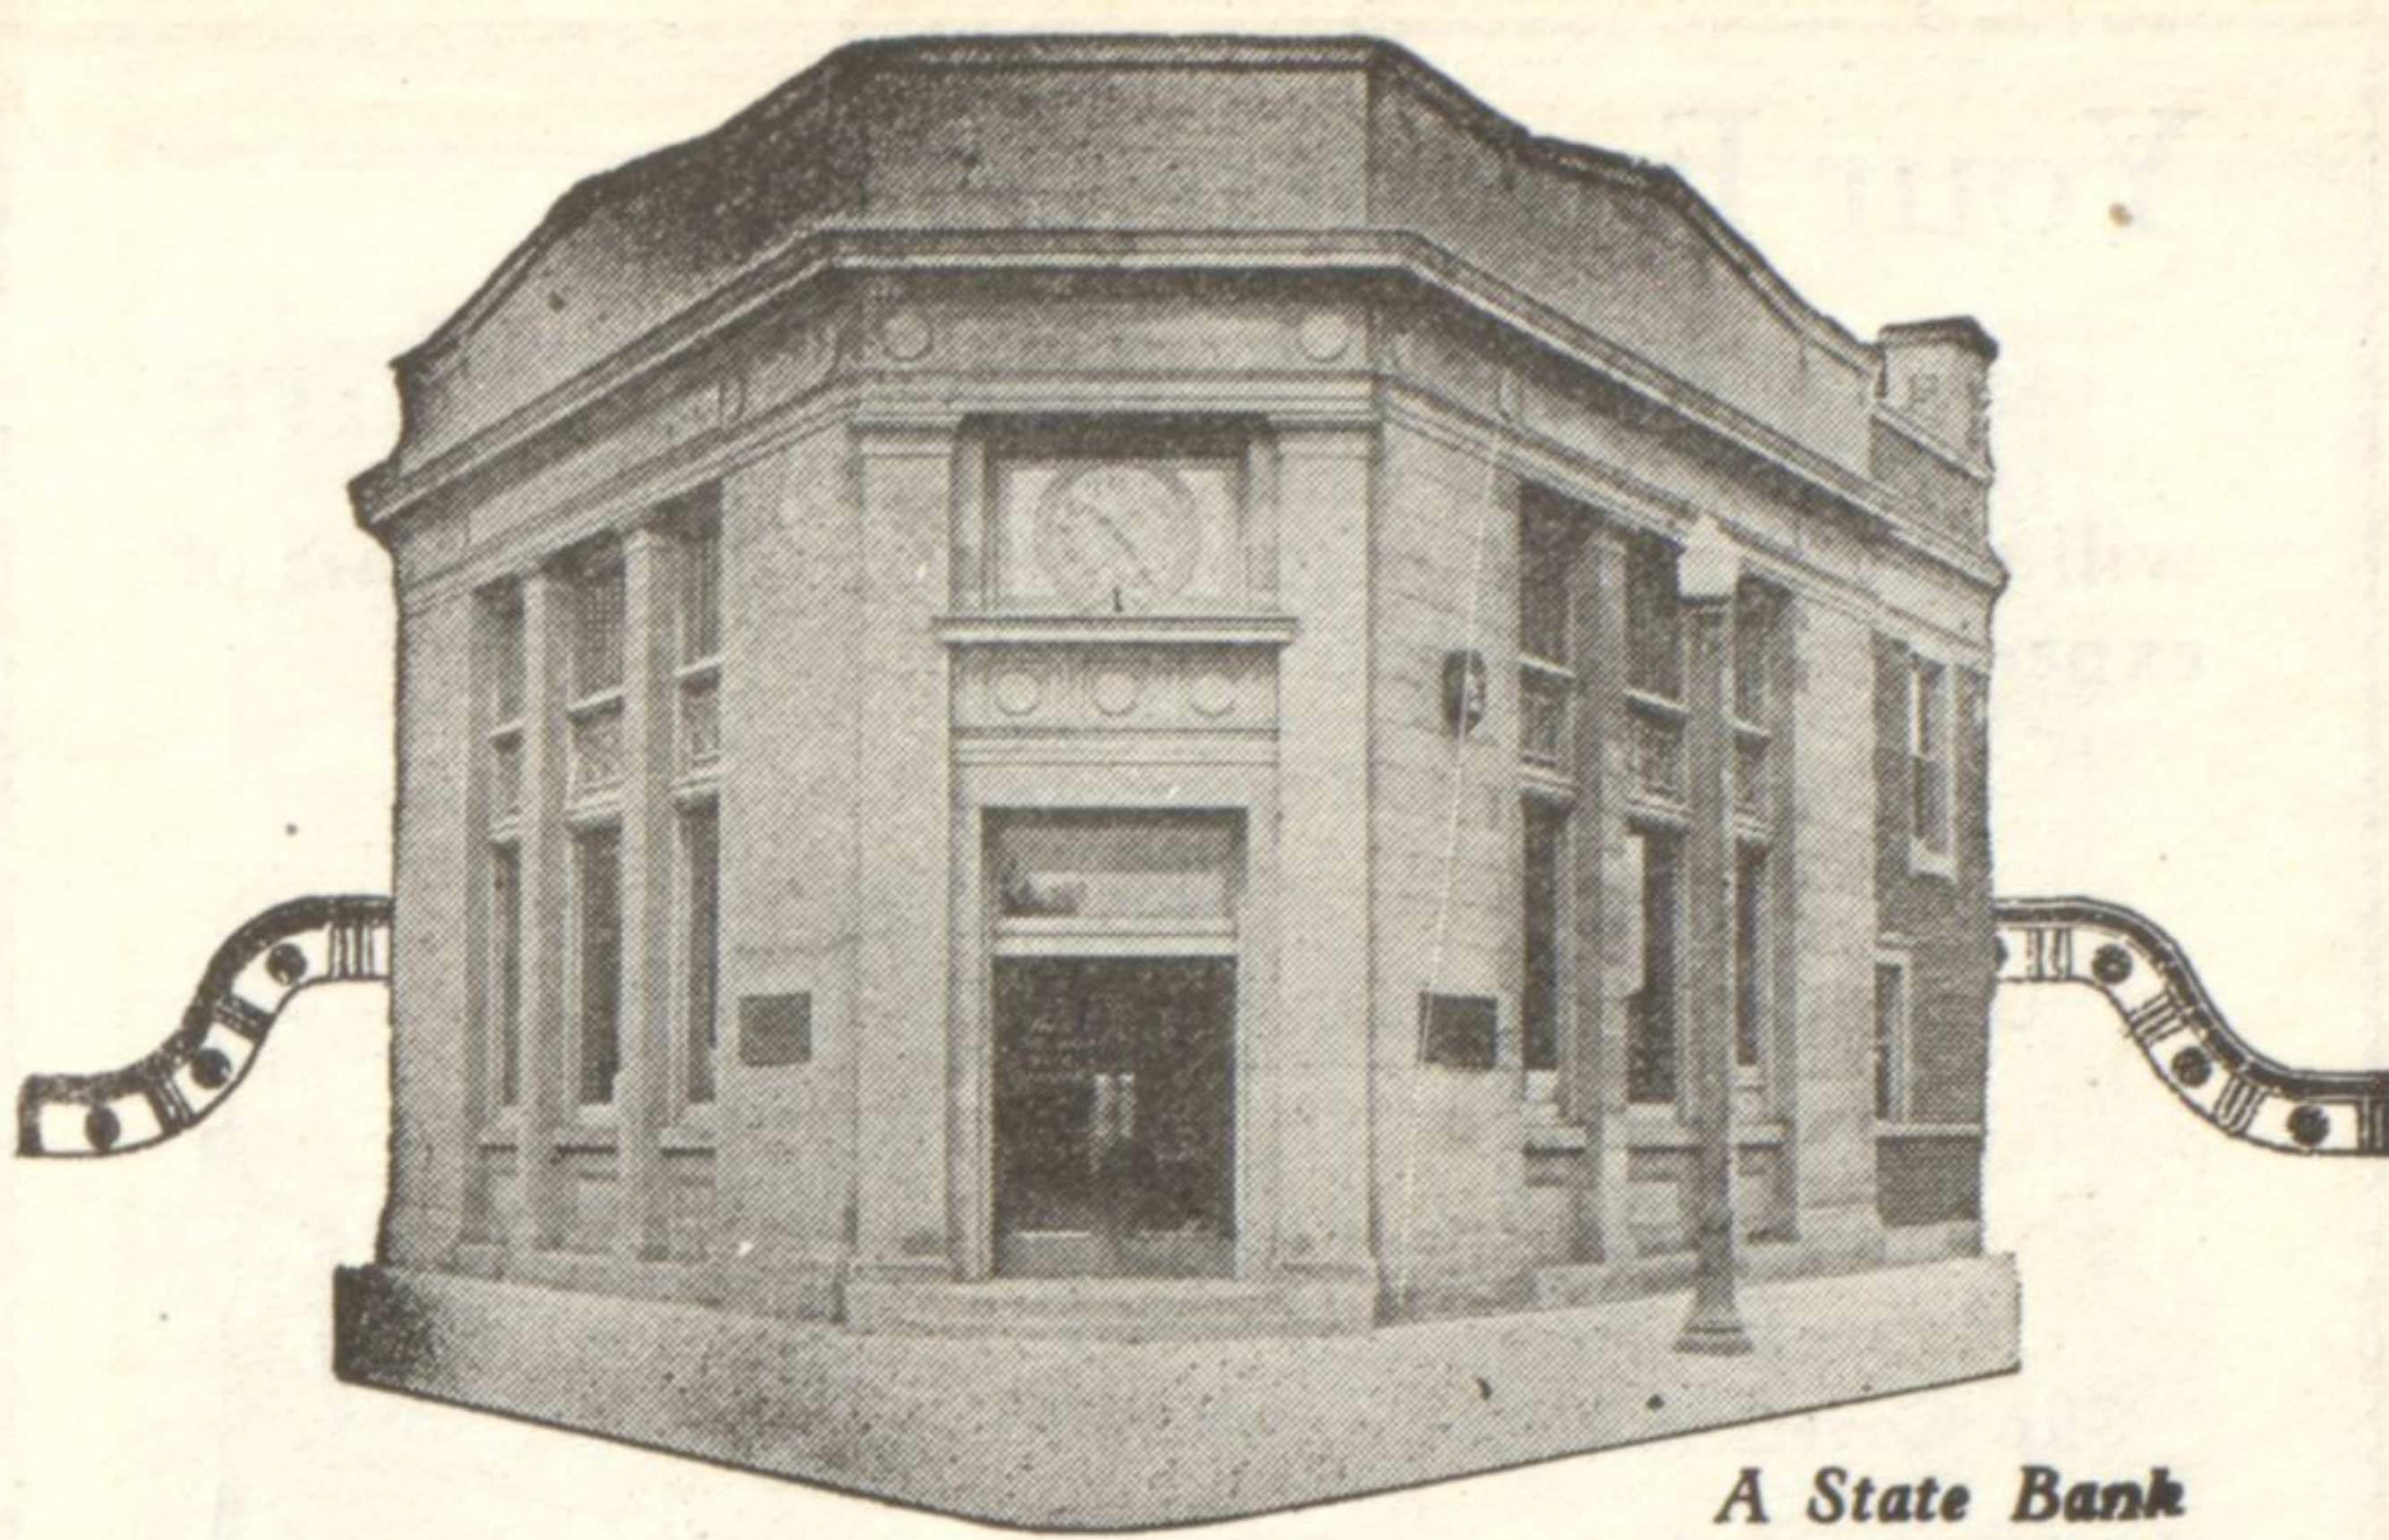

Arthur Bonnet spoke for the bond issue in "No Man's Land," with Mr. Henry Stanton speaking for the opposition. The meeting was adjourned at 3 P. M.
