Open Verdict Returned by Jury in Hess Inquest

An open verdict was returned by the coroner's jury in Evanston, Wednesday, following its hearing of evidence on the death of Mrs. Charles Wilbur Hess, of 1225 Forest avenue, Evanston, who was killed by a Chicago & Northwestern passenger train at the Elm street crossing in Winnetka, March 5.

Mrs. Hess was instantly killed in attempting to cross to the west side to return home just after alighting from a north bound train which did not stop at Davis street. Stress was placed on the evidence brought out at the coroner's hearing, pertaining to the gates at this crossing relative to their location, when lowered, over the station platforms.

All interested persons were well represented by legal counsel at the hearing, which went into every detail pertaining to the accident.

"MONK OR REFORMERS?"

The Young Men's class of the Winnetka Congregational church, will discuss, "How much should a Christian withdraw from the affairs of the world of which he disapproves, and how much should he get in and try to improve conditions? Should he imitate the monk in the monastery, or the reformer in politics and social life, or what should be his attitude?" The class will not meet with the Men's class, but will hold its usual session at 10 o'clock.

AIR MAIL EXPEDITES TAX-PAYING BUSINESS

Township Collector Hale Cites Instance of Californian's Prompt Remittance

If all the tax payers of New Trier township were as much concerned in the township receiving its own percent of the taxes, which are paid to Township Collector Hale, as is one taxpayer, and one who, by the way, is not a resident of the township. Mr. Hale says there would be a far greater sum to turn over to the various township funds than is usually the custom.

In the particular case in reference, the tax payer is in California. He sent a letter by air mail requesting his tax bills be mailed to him. Collector Hale replied by air mail, special delivery, at 5:15, a week ago last Sunday. It was received in Pasadena at 8 p. m. Tuesday, and the man, who was determined to assist New Trier township with the two percent on his taxes, replied, along with his check, "I'm getting on the bus to go down town to mail you a check."

The check, by which the township will profit something like $40, came flying back by air mail to Collector Hale, who received it Thursday morning of last week, with only eighty-six hours consumed in the dispatch of the tax bills and the receipt of the money.

"Fine business," exclaimed Collector Hale, as he opened the air mail remittance and began to compute the speed with which it all had been accomplished.

"And there are a lot of remittances coming in locally, just as promptly, too," he hastened to explain, "but there are also many who have not yet paid. It is not too late, either, to get in," he said, "as the books will still be open for a limited time."

Collector Hale says he will give notice when the books will be turned in, but he urgently requests those who have not paid, to do so at once, ever bearing in mind the advantage this prompt payment to the collector brings to the township.
