To Illustrate Talk on Costume Design by Professor of Art at Northwestern Wednesday, March 30

A fashion show, to be staged in Annie May Swift hall, with students wearing clothes illustrating a talk on costume design to be given by Miss Anna H. Hong, the Ida C. Cook professor of art at Northwestern university, is planned for Wednesday afternoon, March 30, at 3. The public is invited.

The show will be by the art department and Beaux Art club of the university.

Prof. Joseph Pijoan, who is giving a short series of art lectures at the Art institute, Chicago, lectured yesterday afternoon at Harris hall, under auspices of the University art department. His subject was "Spanish Art." Prof. Pijoan was formerly of the Superior School of Architecture in Barcelona, the Spanish school in Rome, and commendator of the Royal Order of the Crown of Italy.

BUYS IN WILMETTE

W. G. Stacey and company, realtors, have sold through their Wilmette office the vacant lot on Ashland avenue near Thirteenth street, Wilmette, to William C. Hayes of Winnetka. Mr. Hayes will shortly improve this property with an attractive English home, which he expects to occupy late in the summer.

North Shore Pioneer, 92, Celebrates Birthday Monday

Mrs. Dorothy Rosenow Bremer of Highland Park and her children and grandchildren from the north shore celebrated Mrs. Bremer's ninety-second birthday on Monday, March 14. Mrs. Bremer received guests during the day and there was a supper party in the evening in her honor. Mrs. Bremer was complimented with many flowers during the day.

Mrs. Bremer has been a resident of the north shore since she came to this country in 1853, and for ten years she has lived in Highland Park. She lived before that in Northbrook and vicinity. Mrs. F. C. Holste of Wilmette is Mrs. Bremer's daughter.

MEMORIAL TO SYBIL BAUER

Northwestern students will contribute funds for the purchase of a memorial plaque to Sybil Bauer, famous Northwestern girl swimmer, who recently died after a long illness. The plaque, which will cost $150, is to be placed in the swimming pool at the gymnasium. The plaque will be mounted on wood and will have the figure of Miss Bauer in a Northwestern swimming suit standing out in bold relief. Beneath the figure will be the words, "Daughter of Neptune," the organization of which she was a member. Her records will also be placed on the plaque.

CARRIER EXAMINATIONS

The United States Civil Service commission announces that an examination will be held for the position of carriers for the Kenilworth postal delivery on April 16, applications for which must be in the hands of the local secretary of the Civil Service district, Mrs. Harriet Savage, at the Kenilworth Post Office by April 6.

Freedom of Action

ONE SMALL DETAIL of fitting is often the difference between a shoe that injures and retards the healthy growth of the child's foot and a shoe that gives healthy comfort and directs the development of the foot along lines of normal growth.

Foot freedom is the most important thing we have to sell.
