The Minturn Players

"The First Year"

"The best comedy of our generation," said Heywood Broun, the noted dramatic critic of the New York Tribune, in tribute to Frank Craven's play, "The First Year." "One of the best comedies, if not the very best ever written by an American," said Alexander Woolcott, eminent critic of the New York Times. Every critic, not only in New York, but in every large city of the United States, has, without exception, echoed these words.

During the two-year New York run of "The First Year"-second only to that of "Lightnin'"-likewise produced and staged respectively by John Golden and Winchell Smith-the New York public made this appraisal unanimous.

Why? Because "The First Year" is life. The characters are people you know-living next door-in your own family-perhaps, being even you, yourself. The things they do are the things you do.

The story of "The First Year" is the story of the first year of married life, with its comic tragedies, its laughter and sorrow, its sunshine and shadow, as folks have lived it and are living it that they become mere stage accessonow in every American home.

VILLAGE THEATRE

"The Winning of Barbara Worth," Samuel Goldwyn's presentation of the Henry King production of Harold Bell Wright's best selling novel, with Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky, come to the Village Theatre as the feature for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The dramatic romance which features Ronald Colman and the lovely Vilma Banky, is a glowing tale of those pioneers who battled with the menace of water, first in its total absence and then in its overflowing presence. It is at once the story of vast lands reclaimed and the reclamation of a man's soul.

"The Winning of Barbara Worth" presents the most unique eternal triangle of any of the more important films, with Willard Holmes, eastern engineer, coming to love Barbara just as Abe Lee, desert-bred westerner, does; and poor Barbara does not know her own mind, loving both. Gary Cooper, one of the year's "finds," plays Abe Lee to Ronald Colman's Holmes. And Miss Banky is Barbara Worth, daughter of the Jefferson Worth who knew the West should be reclaimed.

Conflict between the old and the new is the basic theme of "Sensation Seekers," starring Billie Dove with Huntley Gordon, which will be shown on Thursday only.

In this motion picture drama of personal life in fashionable society is presented the spectacle of the hidebound puritanism of yesterday trying to defeat the liberty of today, reducing every person to the rigorous discipline of dogma.

Youth break the traces and becomes lawless beyond reason but at last the fiery temper, which will not yield to force, is seen to yield to love.

In every crowds or New York tastes when it every reason to feel proud of "The comes to the stage but I do know that Patsy." if they are anything like mine, the theatre editors in the big village weren't suffering from anything when they said it was a "wow." In my opinion, "The Patsy" is by far the biggest of the season's presentations and the smoothest of the Minturn productions. It's the kind of a play you write home about.

To start with Barry Connors wrote a good play. It moves fast; it is versatile in characterization; it is superb in humor. It is a comedy but there are subtle touches of dramatic pathos interwoven in such a manner that they could not offend the most sensitive nature or the most critical ear. The plot is simple but is complete and well rounded. Upon the other hand, it is the type of play that without careful casting would fall flat in its presenta-

THE NORSHORE

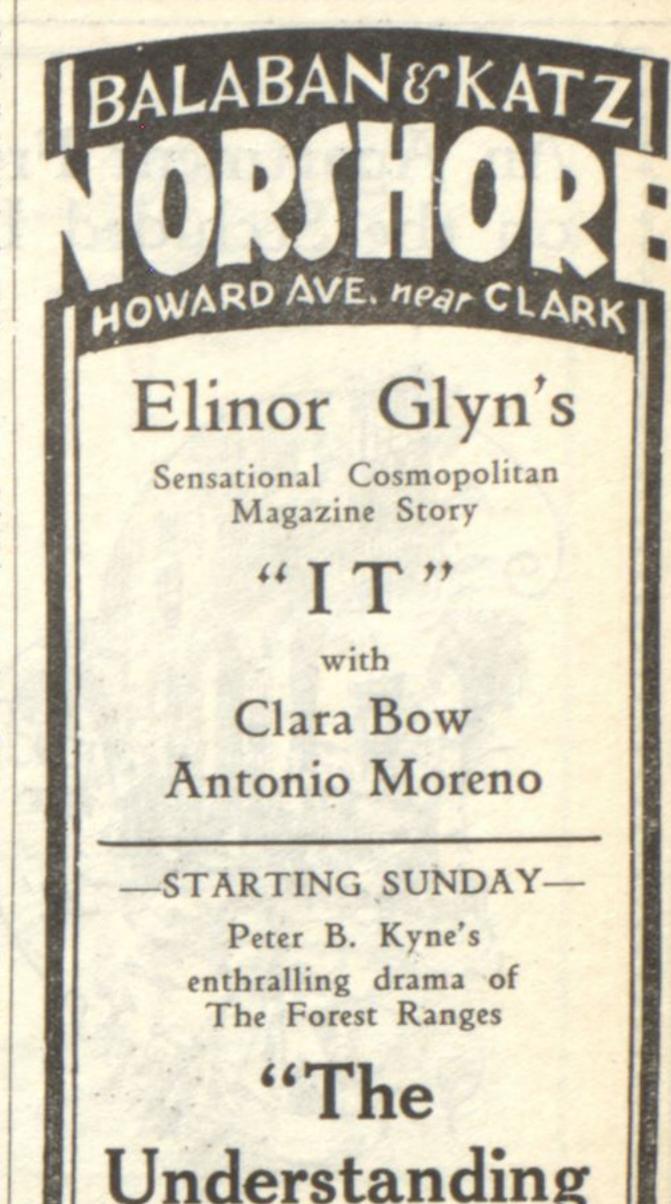

Cosmopolitan's newest production, "The Understanding Heart," coming Sunday to the Norshore theatre, is said to be a romantic drama of intense realism and power. It is a stirring picturization of the popular Peter B. Kyne novel, directed for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer by Jack Conway, with Joan Crawford, Rockliffe Fellowes, Carmel Myers and Francis X. Bushman, Jr.

It is a tale of the great outdoors, having for a background the immense timber lands of the Northwest on the United States Government preserves.

Joan Crawford, for whom big things are prophesied, does a profoundly moving bit of acting in this big picture.
