

COURT VACATES CALL FOR BOND ELECTION

ture performances as has been admitted to be the plan of the moving picture syndicate, let them get busy by writing the legislators at Springfield, the Speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives, the President of the Illinois Senate and the Governor of the State that they want the House Bill No. 51 passed. Let the various Voters' leagues, the various civic organizations, and the numerous community clubs, who feel that this unrestricted development should be stopped for the benefit of our home life and our home ideals, let these organizations exert their utmost influence to further the passage of the measure before the legislature. Let them show our representatives at Springfield that we mean to protect those things we cherish and House Bill No. 51 will pass.

"It's now up to the north shore to make its wishes known in unmistakable manner. I hope that we can all unite on the single issue now before us and carry it through to victory."

PRESENT "ELIJAH"

Charles Lutton and Rollin Pease will be the soloists with the choir of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church Sunday afternoon, March 27, in the rendition of the cantata, "Elijah."

Chamber Guarantees Unies for Winnetka Ball Players

The Winnetka Chamber of Commerce has been requested to advance the necessary funds with which to purchase uniforms for the Winnetka baseball team this season, and, at the meeting of the Chamber Monday evening, a committee was appointed by Vice-president Thomas A. Lynch to consider the matter and report at a future session. The committee appointed comprises John Brady, Herbert Paulson and Harry Roberts.

An auditing committee comprising Lee Adams, Alfred Olson and Henry Klauke was also appointed by vice-president Lynch to audit the books of the Chamber and make its report at the April meeting.
