Troubadours On Way

An array of genuine talent has been obtained for the first annual concert of the Troubadour Glee club which is to take place Friday evening, April 1, in the Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial hall of Skokie school, Winnetka. Rollin Pease, well known bass-baritone, of Evanston, will be one of the assisting artists in several groups of songs. Jimmie Gunn, Scotch comedian and impersonator of Harry Lauder, will also feature the program, assisted by Miss Lena McNeil and Hortense Kitch, folk dancers. The Troubadours are under the direction of John G. Gunn.
