

HOLD BENEFIT SALE

Committees in Charge of Congregational Building Benefit Appointed; Plans Progressing Rapidly.

Interest in the "White Elephant" sale which is to be held at the Community House on March 4 and 5, is increasing daily as the plans for the event take shape. All sorts of interesting things are appearing daily at the Community House where they are being stored until the days of the sale. The fact that the proceeds of the sale will go into the fund for the new Congregational church, has brought enthusiastic volunteers to offer their services.

Mrs. Ayres Boal, the general chairman, has asked the following women to take charge of the departments designated. Mrs. John W. Scott and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Welles, will have charge of the bric-a-brac department. The furniture is under the supervision of Mrs. Homer Goodhue and her sister. The Woman's society, with Mrs. D. S. Lasier in charge will furnish the gift table. The hat counter will be in charge of Mrs. Louis Williams and remnants and draperies under the supervision of Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Albert Bechelheimer. Shoes will be sold by Mrs. Albert Martin; books by Mrs. Sherman Aldrich; children's clothing and toys by Mrs. Morris Wilson; boys' clothes and sports goods and instruments by Mrs. Charles Matz. Men's clothing will be with Mrs. Devore Getman; suits and waists with Mrs. Fred Scott; women's accessories and household linens with Mrs. William A. McKinney; and candy department under the direction of Mrs. Burton Atwood, Jr.

In the afternoons, tea will be served for the shoppers under the direction of Mrs. Wallace Rumsey. Mrs. George F. Tucker will supervise feeding all of the volunteer workers at lunch on each of the days of the sale. Mrs. L. F. Wallace has charge of the collecting committee; Mrs. Lee Adams of the sorting committee and Mrs. James Fleming of the poster distribution.

BEAUTY SHOP MOVES

Betty's Beauty shop has leased for May 1 occupancy the corner suite of rooms in the Weissenberg block, at the northeast corner of Elm and Chestnut streets, the change being made to accommodate an increasing business. The lease was made through Hill & Stone, 543 Lincoln avenue, who have the management of the building.

Mrs. Alfred Roy Hulbert, 528 Abbottsford road, and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Livingston, are returning to Kenilworth the end of the week from California via the Canadian Pacific. They are expected home the latter part of this week.

Public Forum

Editor, WINNETKA TALK:

At the caucus held at the Community House March 14, Mr. Robert F. Wallace, in speaking against my candidacy for Marshal and Collector, stated that his suspicions were aroused when anyone sought to give back any money to the Village, and, also, that I was a candidate for this office ten years ago.

My only motive in allowing my name to be presented was to save the Village $550 a year, for I cannot conceive why a Village like Winnetka should pay one of its citizens $550 a year to have him promise to do nothing.

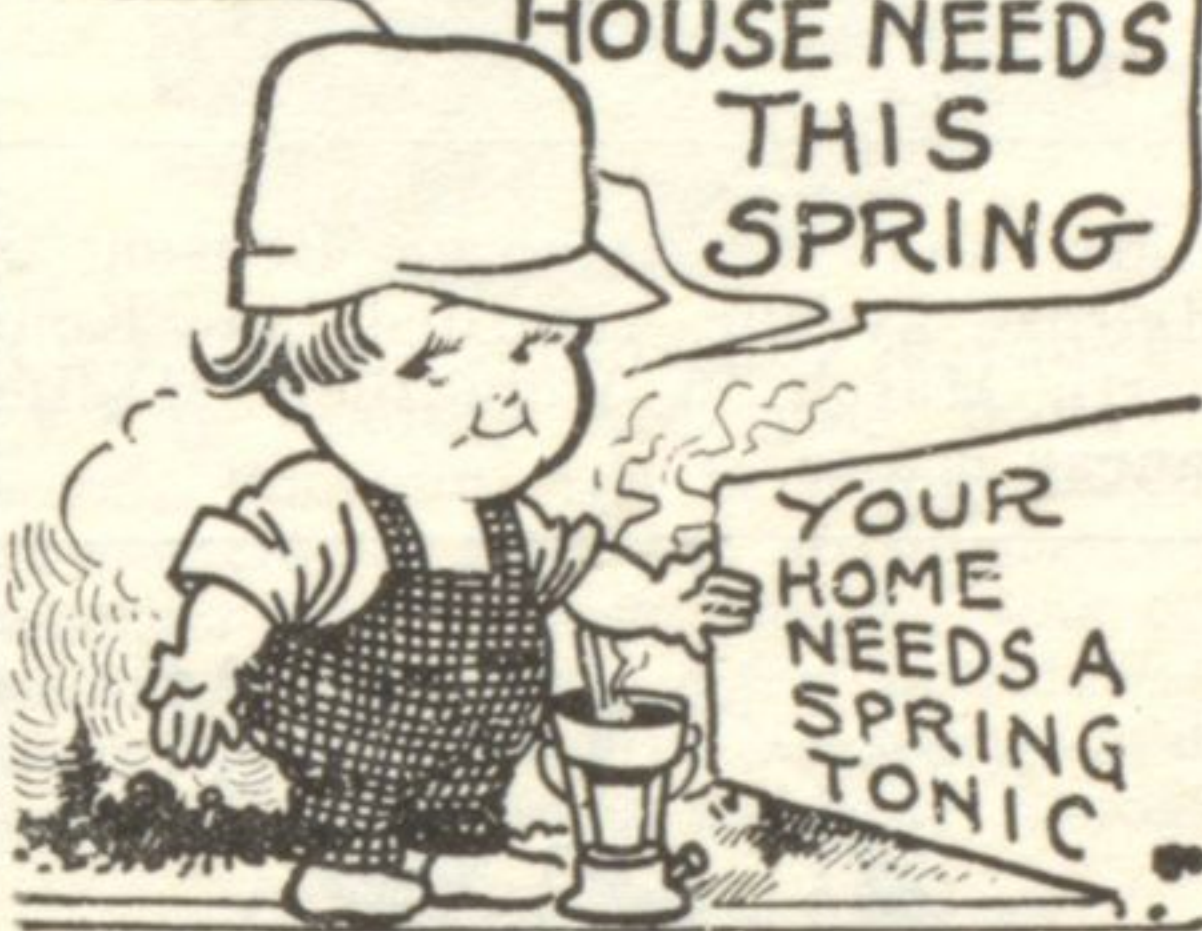

I have been a resident in Winnetka for almost thirty years and never before have I been a candidate for any office.

Ten years ago I was in the military service of the United States and could not have been a candidate for any office, as Mr. Wallace stated.

Mr. Wallace has either been misinformed or else is very careless in his statements.

Yours sincerely,
A. Lee Adams
