Dances and Teas Fill Northwestern Social Calendar

Senior ball topped the social events at Northwestern university last weekend, and other affairs are on the calendar for the near future. The ball was held in the Patten gymnasium Friday evening in a Palm Beach setting of banked greens and flowers. Another annual event held Friday was the prom given by the three chapters of Delta Tau Delta from Northwestern, Chicago and Armour at the Blackstone hotel.

Pi Beta Phi is holding a subscription dance this evening at the Orrington hotel roof for the benefit of the house fund. Alpha Xi Delta will hold a subscription dance Wednesday, April 3, at the Evanston Woman's club.

Phi Kappa Psi held open house on Sunday afternoon of last week, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon will entertain at tea this Sunday afternoon. The alumni of the Chicago chapter of Phi Delta Theta entertained the Northwestern and Chicago chapters at a dance last Saturday evening at the Riverside Country club. The Sigma Chi chapter attended Sigma Chi night in a body at Edgewater Beach hotel Saturday.

The balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet" given by Daisy Belmore of "The Vagabond King" company entertained the several hundred sorority women who attended the annual luncheon of the Chicago City Panhellenic association at the Illinois Women's Athletic club last Saturday. Another event attended by the women of the campus sororities was the tea given Wednesday by Alpha Omicron Pi in honor of its grand secretary, Mrs. James Huntington, and its district superintendent, Miss Milita Skillen.

VISITS WITH PARENTS

Mrs. Gordon Webster Daly is visiting with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Fred C. Honnold, 457 Ash street. Mr. Daly is here for the last week of her visit and they will return to their home in Brookline, Mass., the first of April.
