

SERVICE PLUS

Probably the most important phase in the purchase of a new car, is that of local service.

All too often the motor buying public neglects to look into this matter with the seriousness it deserves.

What good is the motor car without the accessibility of prompt, courteous and efficient service right here at home.

Our aim is to place our service station on the same high plane as the

CHRYSLER CAR

We are constantly striving to better our service. Chrysler owners will gladly attest as to how good we are doing our job.

For your own sake—investigate the service proposition thoroughly before buying a car at any price.
