"Winnetka has always responded generously."

Last Subscription Dance

The last of the series of subscription dances given for members of the Woman's club of Wilmette and their friends is to be Saturday evening, April 2, at the clubhouse. These delightful affairs have been given during the winter season for the benefit of the club building fund. They have been well attended, and have been the source of much pleasure to Wilmette society.

North Shore Town Give Arden Shore Reunions

Winnetka, Kenilworth, and Evanston are the three villages who gave to about one hundred boys of the Arden Shore Winter camp their annual reunion dinner last evening at Gads Hill settlement. Members of the Arden Shore association in these towns donated the food and served the boys.

Mrs. Marcus D. Richards of Winnetka, Mrs. Mark Cresap of Kenilworth, and Mrs. Ernest Palmer, Mrs. Richard Gambrell, Jr., and Miss Ellen Dryden of Evanston were those in charge of the arrangements.

Villages further north are in charge of the reunion dinner to be served girls of the Summer camp Sunday at Arden Shore.

Winnetka Girls Are Among Most Beautiful at Vassar

In making the annual selection of twenty-two of the most beautiful girls in the sophomore class at Vassar college who will carry the daisy chain at class day in June, two Winnetka girls have been chosen. Mary Ott, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nash Ott of 17 Indian Hill road, and a granddaughter of the late James B. Forgan, and Cynthia Kohlsaad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Christian Kohlsaad of 777 Bryant avenue, are among those receiving the beauty laurels which have been equally divided this season between blonde and brunette.

Romance of Theatre Guild

Announcement has been made of a small wedding that is of north shore interest in that both bride and groom have taken active part in North Shore Theatre guild plays, and the latter was the guild's business manager last season. Monday afternoon Miss Virginia FitzHugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carter H. FitzHugh of Lake Forest, and Melvin P. Wamboldt were married in only the presence of their immediate families, with the Rev. Herbert W. Prince of the Lake Forest Episcopal church officiating. The bride was attired in an afternoon dress. There were no attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Wamboldt are to make their home in Pasadena.

Resident and former resident artists and art students of Wilmette are invited to contribute to the annual exhibition of Wilmette art held by the Woman's club of Wilmette, the committee in charge announces. The exhibit will be hung at the Woman's club April 29, 30, and May 1.

The Wilmette center of the Infant Welfare society of Chicago held an all-day sewing meeting Thursday, March 24, at the home of Mrs. T. B. Potter, 607 Forest avenue.

Marian Dawes to Marry in Christ Church April 30

Christ church on the top of the hill in Winnetka has been chosen by Miss Marian Dawes as the setting in which she will become the bride of Gordon Butler Bilderback, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bilderback of Champaign. The service will be read at 4:30 o'clock, Saturday, April 30, with Dr. Douglas Cornell of the Glencoe Union church officiating, assisted by the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard. The reception will be held at the home of Miss Dawes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Dawes of 187 Hazel avenue, Glencoe.

The wedding party will consist of the matron of honor, the bride's sister, Mrs. W. Hamilton Walter of Glencoe; the bridesmaids, Miss Jean Dawes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Dawes of Evanston, and Miss Eloise Hazard of Rochester, N. Y.; Byron Bilderback of Danville, Ill., who will serve as his brother's best man; and the ushers, Burnham Harris, Frank Robeson, Jr., Stanley Kaufman of Champaign, Angus MacLean of St. Louis, Robert O. Law of Evanston, Ralph J. Mills of Oak Park, Neil B. Dawes of Winnetka and W. Hamilton Walter of Glencoe.

Among the affairs for Miss Dawes prior to her wedding are the kitchen shower given Wednesday by Miss Jean Dawes of Evanston and the small dinner party for the bridal party given this evening by Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dawes of Winnetka.

Lectures at Garden Club

"Gardens in the Spring" was the topic Mrs. Harry Barnum of 735 Walden road, chose for her lecture before members of the Winnetka Garden club Thursday of this week. Mrs. Barnum has been a resident of Winnetka for many years. From her wide experience both at home and in the South, where she has lectured and gardened extensively, Mrs. Barnum had much of value to impart to her audience.

She is leaving today on a short professional trip to New Orleans, Memphis, and Little Rock.

Speak at League Luncheon

The luncheon and meeting of the Kenilworth League of Women Voters on Friday of last week was attended by sixty women. The program of the day was presented by Miss Edith Rockwood, secretary of the Illinois League of Women Voters, and by Mrs. E. F. Snyder of Kenilworth. The latter gave a talk on the institute of government held the early part of this month at Northwestern university.
