

WINNETKA TALK

Saturday, April 2, 1927

Won't Be Long Now

While the official golfing season does not open for several weeks, the customary delegation of early birds has been observed over west on the Skokie Playfield course trying out their drivers and putters. Looks like another big season this summer on the Playfield links which are operated under supervision of the Winnetka Park board.