Woman's Club Musicales One of Season's Best

The closing program given by the music committee of the Winnetka Woman's club on Tuesday, March 29, was considered one of the finest musicales the club has heard during the year. It was especially interesting because it was given by Winnetka talent.

Sydney Smith Cooley, contralto, with Beulah Taylor Porter at the piano, sang several early Italian pieces in her first group. Her second group consisted of modern songs and both were beautifully done.

Mrs. Edwin S. Fetcher, the solo pianist, and Mrs. Ernst von Ammon, the second pianist, played the well known concerto in A minor by Grieg, with real musicianship. It was a great pleasure to hear Mrs. Fetcher again after study in Europe.

The program was as follows:
Spirate pur, SpirateDonaudy
Amarilli, mia BellaCaccini
Se tu m'ami, se sospiriPergolesi
In Mezo Al MarSadero
