

NEW TRIER STUDENTS START ON TRIP EAST

Ninety-Nine High School Pupil on Special Train Off on Edu- cational Tour

Ninety-nine students of the New Trier High school left today via the Pennsylvania railroad on an extended tour of eastern points of historical interest; including Washington, D. C., Endless Caverns, Annapolis, Norfolk, Va., and Richmond, Va. A visit at William and Mary college at Williamsburg, Va., has been added to the itinerary and the students will have lunch at the school. The college is the oldest in the United States and it was added to the trip upon the invitation of President Chandler of the school.

The eastern tours are annual events, the one this year being the second to be taken. They are under the personal supervision of Frederick E. Clerk, superintendent of the school and as more than 80 people have signed up, will be taken in a private train furnished by the railroad and to be used throughout the entire trip by the party.

The following people are among those who are to take part in the tour:

Seniors: Junior Smith, Leonard Bates, James Strong, Ned H. Kelly, Robert McNie, James R. Tencher, John Sheridan, Bob Kline, Roger Odman, Marian Page, Ruth Roth, Ruth Hamberger, Margaret Stults, Marian Wolf, Elizabeth Freund, Lola Kurz, Catherine Cook, Helen Cowalow, and Louise Clabaugh.

Juniors: Fred Heitmann, Jr., Lawrence Church, Lyman E. Goss, III, Frank McCabe, Robert Bjork, Alvin Lott, Larz Holloway, Natyalie Hurd, Inez Webster, Clara Grace Wray, Frances McConnell, Mable Anderson, Anna Jerell Davis, Pearl M. Munroe, Barbara Berry, Margorie C. Smith, Leonore Rennert, Bessie Louise Berry, Dorothy Klunder, Margaret Whipple, Virginia Miller, Jane Babcock, Rose Flentye, Mary Lennan, Marian Suits and Virginia Pierson.

Sophomores: Leonard Meyer, Robert Marcus, James Gerber, Stephen Windes, Herbert Coppel, John M. Ercikson, II, Lulia Wild and Eloise Kremer.

Freshmen: Edward Heinsimer, Billy Anderson, William Gage, Otto Lorenz, Robert King, Henry Schell, Blanche Forth, Gilbert Davis, Janet A. Brown, Florence C. Tideman, Marian Langdon, and Justine Emrich.

Two boys who are taking postgraduate work at New Trier who will also take the trip are Albert Moore and Henry Corbett.

The names of several of the parents have been registered, among them being Mrs. Sydney C. Anderson, Mrs. O. H. Miller, Mrs. W. E. Suits and Mrs. Henrietta A. Holloway.

Mrs. Austin Jenner of 1005 Hill road entertained at luncheon and bridge Friday for Miss Caroline Dolbeer of Batavia, N. Y. Miss Dolbeer left Wednesday night, April 6, after having spent two weeks with Mrs. Dorr Price of 661 Hill road.

LIGHT TOWN VOTE

The annual township election was held last Tuesday when a light complimentary vote was polled for the two unopposed candidates for the offices of school trustee and township constable. Walter T. Fisher, of Winnetka, was the candidate for the former office and John A. Schildgen, of Wilmette, for the latter.

Mrs. Harry Sullivan of 155 Chestnut avenue will return tomorrow with her children, Jean and Suzanne, from Pasadena. They have been in California since the middle of March.

MARINELLO BEAUTY SHOP
733 Elm Street
For Appointment
Phone
Winnetka 822

Easter Lilies

and

Potted Plants

Choice Cut Flowers

Baskets as Well as Corsages

Artistically Arranged

FLOWERS BY TELEGRAPH

Our Telegraph Delivery Service guarantees the safe delivery of flowers to friends and relatives who are out of town

HENRY ILG

Florist

Cor. Pine and Center St.

Established 25 Years

Tel. Winnetka 313

General Contracting
New Homes Built
All Kinds of Building Repairs—Jobbing Remodeling—Alterations
Estimates Submitted
Plans and specifications
prepared if desired
1st and 2nd Mortgage Loans
A. J. Johnson
550 Center St. Ph. Winn. 344 or
Deerfield 254 Box 527 Deerfield