

For Easter

Tasty sugar cured hams in all sizes—for the big family and the small. Our bacons, all the leading brands, will melt in your mouth—just the right portion of fat and lean. Sold in bulk or in carton.

Choice Genuine Spring Lamb, hind or full quarter.

Peters Market

Meats of Quality Only

Phone 920-21-22. Winn.

734 Elm St.

Winnetka

Local Boy Draws Cover to Encase U. of I. Beauties

Albert Kremer of Wilmette, well known for his cartooning while he was a student at New Trier high school, will have his name signed to the cover of the next number of Siren, the humorous publication at the University of Illinois.

This issue of the magazine is the women's edition, and the cover design submitted by the Wilmette artist, a freshman at the university, was accepted. One of the pictures in this number will be of Cecile Gilroy of Wilmette, who was one of the 8 winners of the Vanity Fair Beauty contest conducted week-end before last.

The work of the artist, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kremer of 723 Laurel avenue, was recognized and accepted at the university after he had been there only six weeks.

Three Kenilworth girls returned to Rockford college Monday after a ten day vacation at home, Virginia Dickinson, daughter of Mrs. Italia C. Dickinson of 637 Abbottsford road, Sybil Saxton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Saxton of 544 Maple avenue, and Phoebe Tuells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Tuells of 38 Abbottsford road.

Mrs. M. K. Valentine, Miss Katherine Beebe, and A. A. Beebe of 25 Indian Hill road, Winnetka, have returned after having spent the winter in Pasadena.

Two Parties Wage Election Battle Out Glenview Way

The Citizens' party and the Progressive party each have tickets in the field at Glenview where the village election will be held next Tuesday, for the election of a president and four trustees.

Lester W. Coons, who recently resigned from the board as a trustee, is the candidate for president on the Citizens' party ticket, on which the candidates for trustees are, Henry F. Miller, Richard Gould, Ben Kirk and John Gateje.

The progressive ticket is headed by H. M. McCullen, candidate for re-election to that office. The four candidates for trustees on this ticket are Carl A. Ladendorf, Oscar L. Scalbom, Louis Voelk and Ernest Schultz.

In addition to the selection of five village officials, Glenview citizens will vote on the proposition to annex one of the largest additions to the village that has been proposed. This is the Harlem Park sub-division, owned by Axel Lonnquist of Wilmette. The property fronts for approximately three quarters of a mile on Waukegan road, and is being developed by Mr. Lonnquist and the entire Lonnquist company.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Gillies of 1148 Oakley avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Heber H. Smith of 341 Ridge avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Warden of 495 Ash street will leave next week for White Sulphur Springs to spend two weeks.

Miss Marion Fulton of 884 Hill road will leave next Thursday to spend the Easter holidays in Cleveland and in Loudenville, Ohio, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Be Bout.

GENERAL REPAIR AND HOUSE SERVICE

Elmer W. Wennlund

1017 Elm Street, Winnetka
Tel. Winn. 1136, during day.
Tel. Wil. 892-Y3 evenings.

Glass, mirrors, electrical appliances, screens, storm windows.

Floor waxing, window washing, basements cleaned and calcimined, etc.

All work called for and delivered. Prompt service and reasonable rates.

HATS REMODELED

Miss Spurlock, formerly with Gage Bros., will make your old hat look like new.

Spurlock Hat Shop

557 Lincoln Avenue

All Flavors—All Shapes

in our

Home Made Ice Cream

Delicious 100% Pure Cream—With Fresh Fruits made in our own Ice Cream Kitchen.

Smith's Delicatessen

819 Oak Street

Phone 112

Marion I. Calkins

A Spring showing of Sports Clothes which include many
French Models

DOBBS HATS

724 Elm Street