

The Ideal
Home

ADMIRABLE facilities for happy and inexpensive living are provided by this most modern apartment hotel in the heart of downtown Evanston. Rooms are pleasant and commodious. Service is unexcelled. And the reasonable costs will be pleasantly surprising.

University 8000

Library  Plaza

Orrington Avenue, just south of Church Street

NOON LENT MEETINGS

Leaders in Chicago Protestant Churches to Conduct Services at Chicago Temple, April 11 to 15

The second week of Noonday Lenten services, April 11-15, under the joint auspices of the Chicago Church Federation and the First Methodist Episcopal church, will be held in Chicago temple. Seventeen church denominations are co-operating, representing 800 Protestant churches.

Rev. Charles W. Gilkey will speak on "Changed Perspective" on Monday, April 11. On Tuesday, April 12, George W. Dixon, general chairman and president of the board of trustees of Chicago temple, will preside. The invocation will be given by Dr. Edward G. Schutz, district superintendent, Chicago. Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, Chicago, will speak on "The Limitation of Prayer."

On Wednesday, Rev. R. J. Wade, D.D., secretary of the General Conference, and executive secretary, World Service commission, will give the invocation, and Bishop Hughes will speak on "The Reaction of Prayer." Thursday Dr. M. N. English, Oak Park, will give the invocation and Bishop Hughes will speak on "The Habit of Prayer."

Each day at 12 to 12:15 noon, there will be a Lenten organ recital by Arthur Dunham, and at 12:45 to 1 o'clock, Mr. Dunham will give special organ selections.

On Good Friday, April 15, Dr. John Thompson, pastor, Chicago temple, will give the invocation and Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes will speak on "The Cross in Prayer," at the noon hour service. At the service from 1 to 2 o'clock, Rev. Asa J. Ferry will give an address on "The Cross in Christian Experience," and Rev. Walter A. Morgan will discuss "The Dynamic of the Cross." From 2 to 3 P. M., there will be a service at which Rev. M. P. Boynton will discuss "Jesus the Unifier of Men," and Bishop S. P. Spreng will speak on "The Cross of Christ, a Challenge of Faith."

The services are open to the public.

Edna Dean Baker Gives Last of Radio Lectures

"Spring and the Child" was the subject of an interesting radio talk for mothers and teachers given by President Edna Dean Baker of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college from station WMAQ on Wednesday afternoon, April 6.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Kihm, manager of the North Shore hotel, Evanston, a group of mothers and students, including the college class in religious education, were invited to attend the lecture via the receiving set in the hotel.

This program concluded the series of talks on the moral-social education of the child, which Miss Baker has given from WMAQ during the winter months.

RECEPTION FOR FACULTY

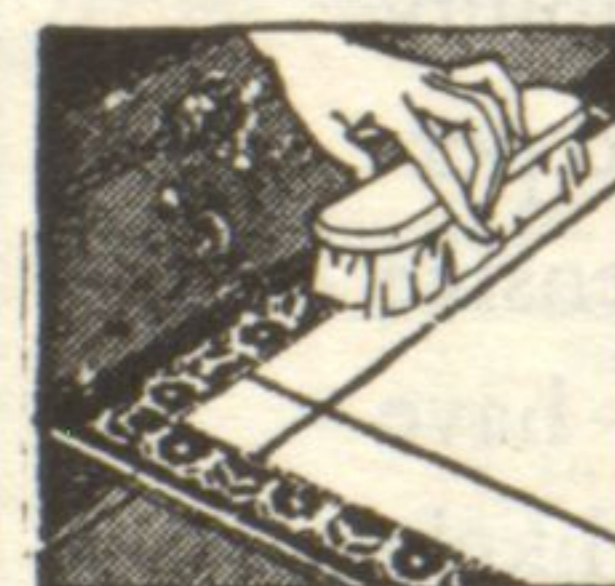

A formal reception for the faculty of Northwestern university was given last evening by the students living at Willard hall.

The trustees of the university and the parents living nearby also attended. There was dancing and entertainment by the girls. The hostesses were: Dean Winifred Richardson, Miss Eleanor Lewis, Miss Alice Jones, Miss Helen Lee, Miss Helen Kennedy, Miss Helen Cole, Miss Dorothy Fike, Miss Ruth McIntyre, and Miss Margaret England.

YOUR CURTAINS
TELL THE WORLD

Every curtain is dried to exactly its original size.

Curtains are gently patted down—no pin holes or hook marks to mar them.

Corners are always square—curtains hang correctly.

Have them tell it right, edges square, length right, no hook or pin holes, ruffles fluted, scallops shaped perfectly, ecrued if desired.

We have special equipment and experts to do them right. Reflect your immaculate housekeeping to the outside and inside—TELL THE WORLD.

WILMETTE 571—NO TOLL

FRENCH LAUNDRY

VICTOR ORTLUND, President