OPEN FESTIVAL OFFICE

Begin Sale of Course Tickets for May Music Event; Noted Artists Are Featured on Programs

Headquarters of the North Shore Music Festival association have been opened at 1580 Sherman avenue, Evanston, under direction of John H. Hilton, business manager.

The annual series of concerts will take place in Northwestern university gymnasium May 23 to 28.

The advantage of buying course tickets and the saving incurred thereby is being again urged upon patrons of the festival. It has the mutual advantage of assuring financial support in advance to the venture and of favoring patrons with a better choice of seats. Prices range from $5 to $16 for the course, according to location of seats.

Among the artists to be heard this season will be Horace Stevens, famous English baritone; Louise Loring, Doris Doe, Paul Althouse, Edward Johnson, Mischa Levitzki, Sophie Breslau, Mary Lewis, Lawrence Tibbett and others.

Miss Eva Wilson of 623 Spruce street returned April 8, after five months spent in California and Honolulu with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Hand of Adrain, Mich. Mrs. Hand returned home Tuesday night, after a few days in Winnetka.

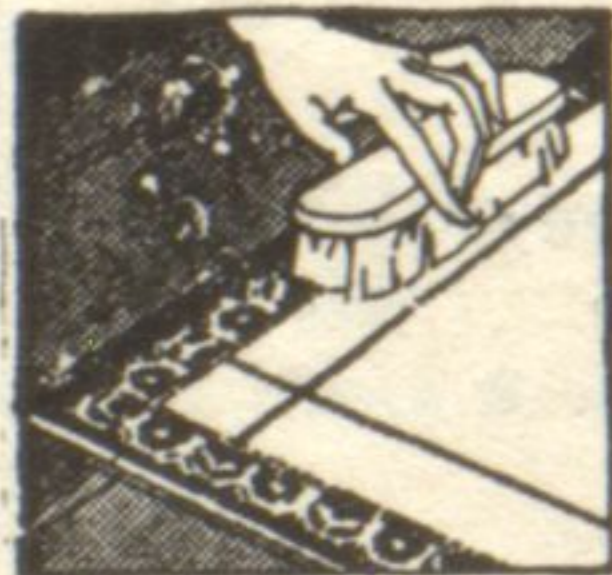

Miss Jessie D. West, daughter of Mrs. John Cordner West of 937 Gordon terrace, arrived April 14, from the University of Illinois for an Easter vacation of ten days. Miss West is a junior at the university.

Mrs. R. B. Chittenden of 1368 Scott avenue is expected to return April 16, from a week's visit with her parents in Bloomingdale, Mich.

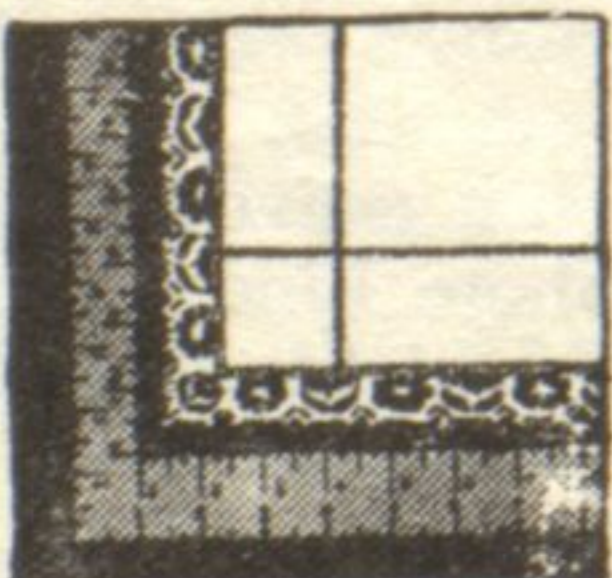

YOUR CURTAINS TELL THE WORLD

Every curtain is dried to exactly its original size.

Curtains are gently patted down—no pin holes or hook marks to mar them.

Corners are always square—curtains hang correctly.

Have them tell it right, edges square, length right, no hook or pin holes, ruffles fluted, scallops shaped perfectly, ecrued if desired.

We have special equipment and experts to do them right. Reflect your immaculate housekeeping to the outside and inside—TELL THE WORLD.
