

Children in Orient to Be Subject of Lecture

"Work with Children in the Orient" is the subject to be presented at the weekly assembly of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college Thursday afternoon, April 21, by the Misses Lucy Russell, Elizabeth Hobart and Edith Shufelt. Miss Russell has had a great deal of practical experience in the kindergartens of Japan and Miss Hobart and Miss Shufelt have also acquired first-hand information on the matter through several years in the mission kindergartens of China.

"INTELLECTUAL HATREDS"

"Intellectual Hatreds in America—a Sermon for Passover," is the subject for the services of the North Shore Congregation Israel Sunday morning April 17, at 11 o'clock, in the Hubbard Woods school. The services will be conducted by Rabbi Harvey E. Wessel.

Every voter should become informed regarding precinct boundaries and the location of the polling places by referring to the official notice of the Village election to be found on page 55 of this issue of WILMETTE LIFE.

Catholic Women's League Elects Its New Officers

O'Brien, second vice-president, and Mrs. N. P. Anderson, third vice-president. Mrs. Frederick Hubsch was elected recording secretary, Mrs. Anthony Eiden, corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. E. Tilroe, financial secretary, and Mrs. William Schneider, treasurer. Directors are Mrs. Charles Coyle, Mrs. William Pavey, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Frederick Albrecht, and Mrs. Leo J. Hillman.

Chicagoan Buys Crosby Residence in Glencoe

The two-story brick Colonial residence at the southwest corner of Lake and Woodlawn avenues, Glencoe, built last summer by R. A. Crosby, Winnetka building contractor, and which has since been occupied by his family, has been sold to Clarence R. Lininger of Chicago. The consideration, it is said, was $25,000. Mr. Lininger will take possession May 1.

This property is known as No. 200 Woodlawn avenue, the lot having a frontage of 50 feet on Woodlawn by 141 feet on Lake street. The house comprises seven rooms, has a tile roof and two bathrooms. The large open front porch on the north, is to be converted into a closed porch or sun room.

Mrs. Robert H. Ripley, 29 Indian Hill road, returned Monday with her children, Beatrice, Hampton, and Wilder, from Pinehurst, N. C., where they had been for three weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Ely have sold their home at 592 Cherry street and are living at the Orrington hotel, Evanston, until the completion of their new home at 430 Walnut street.

Announce Course of Lectures for Summer Session

With Evanston and Chicago being featured as summer resorts with a large number of attractive features, the Summer school catalog of Northwestern university for 1927 is just off the presses and, besides clinic and recreational allurements, stresses an unusually attractive list of general lectures. Various notables from other universities and from foreign lands are listed among the summer faculties and virtually all of these educators will be billed as popular lecturers. Some of the addresses to be made are listed as follows:

Wednesday, June 29, Bernard Fay, professor at the University of Clermont-Ferrand, France, on "Benjamin Franklin as a Moral Leader"; July 1, Bernard Fay, "Secret Societies During the Eighteenth Century"; Howard M. Jones, associate professor of English at the University of North Carolina, "French Fashions"; Charles Mollon, Agrege, lecturer in Romance Languages, Dartmouth college, "America Judged by the French Man-in-the-Street"; Herman G. James, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, University of Nebraska, "Argentina Today"; Isaac J. Cox, professor of history, Northwestern university, "Chile Today" (illustrated).

Franklin D. Barker, professor of zoology, Northwestern university, "The Destiny of Man"; Mason E. Hufford, assistant professor of physics, Indiana university, "The Wave Structure of Light as Shown by Diffraction" (illustrated); Frank C. Whitmore, professor of chemistry, Northwestern university, "The Chemistry of Alcohols"; Edward D. Snyder, professor of English, Haverford college, "The Greatest American Poet—Poe or Whitman?"; William L. Bailey, professor of economics and sociology, Northwestern university, "Cities in Evolution."
