

LEE Says:

IT'S been about
 TWENTY-FOUR years since
 WE started in business
 HERE in Winnetka
 AND we believe it's ENTIRELY in order now
 TO say that we more
 THAN appreciate the PATRONAGE you people
 HAVE been giving us—
 MAYBE we haven't
 TOLD all our customers
 SO, but that's the WAY we feel about
 IT anyway—
 AND just to show our APPRECIATION we are TRYING our derndest
 TO give you a drug
 STORE that you can
 BE proud of and HAVE confidence in—
 MORE than that, we're
 PRICING our merchandise
 ALWAYS on a
 LIVE-and-let-live basis
 AND if you ever have OCCASION to think
 OTHERWISE, we wish you'd TELL us frankly—your SUGGESTIONS will help
 US to improve our SERVICE.

ART LEAGUE EXHIBIT OPENS WITH DINNER

an instructor at the Art institute, criticizes the work Wednesdays.

Among the outstanding landscapes are two by Frank Peyraud of Ravinia. These are "October on the Desplaines" and "October Sunlight." Allen Philbrick's "A Gray Day on the River" is extremely interesting, as is W. I. Jones' "Sketch." "Grey Day," by William R. Watson of Highland Park, deserves special mention. Rudolph Ingerle is exhibiting two decorative landscapes which were shown at the Chicago Artists' show this year. Albert Ullrich has a colorful "Purple Path" and "Floating Leaves."

Sara Crosby-Buck's "Portrait of Betty C." is notable for its lovely coloring. Elizabeth Krysher Peyraud has an excellent portrait of Mrs. Johansen and a lovely figure of a child, "Geraldine." Allen Philbrick exhibits a charming "Boy with Violin," and Kate Bacon Bond has a head of Charles Ullrich, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Ullrich of 925 Lake avenue, Wilmette. Anita Willits Burnham has two lovely portraits, one of a girl, the other a young artist. An Art institute student, Ruth R. Gibson, exhibits an interesting "Portrait of a Russian Lady," and "Captain, G. A. R." Cora Gould Davies has lovely portraits of Carolyn Case and Mrs. Barr.

Besides the artists mentioned, the following are exhibiting: Mrs. R. W. Bartholomew, M. Veronese Beatty, Howard H. Bede, Mrs. E. G. Bentley, Grace P. Brion, Caroline Louise Burnham, Ruth Hart Calef, Zada Walker Clarke, Edna Rogerson Cook, Nina La Barge Davis, B. L. Davis, Pauline Graff Davis, Frank Dillon, Percy Eckhart, Elizabeth Engelhard, Hazel Crow Ewell, Marie K. Gallagher, William M. Gourley, Arthur Gourley, Max Gunlach, Grace Haskins, Eleanor B. Hatch, Alice Mae Jackson, Edna M. S. Johansen, Jane Johnson, W. I. Jones, Irma A. Keehn, Rene P. Lavenant, Margaret Lippert, Myrtle V. Lundquist, Marcella Mettler, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Millard, Charles Morgan, Buell Mullen, Walter F. Murphy, Leslie Raymond Nash, Sam Otis, Fairfield Porter, Irma Reisner, Lionel Robertson, Alan Scott Robinson, John A. Servas, Uintah Knight Shippen, Clara Byron Simpson, Toque Stoddard, Helen J. Taylor, Marguerite Calkins Taylor, Mrs. Henry F. Tenney, Harry Timmins, Billy Timmins, Sybell L. Vennema, Hugo Olaf Von Hofsten, F. M. Wheeler, I. M. Wilder and Winifred Wilson.

Miss Isabel Cline, 304 Cumnor road, returned to Kenilworth April 14, from New York.
