

Isabel Richardson Molter Schedules Close of Season

Isabel Richardson Molter, American soprano, having enjoyed a busy and successful season, is closing it with dates in several states.

Her future programs include: April 24, 26, 28 and 29, role of "Beauty" in Lester's "Everyman," Chicago; May 9, recital at Parsons college, Fairfield, Iowa; May 20, recital at Rogers Park Woman's club; June 8, soloist at Festival of United Singers of Hudson County, at Jersey City, N. J.; August 4, program on Harold Henry's Artist course, Bennington, Vt.

INVITED TO LUNCHEON

An invitation has been extended to the members of the American Legion auxiliary to attend the luncheon to be given on April 26, for General Summerall, exponent of national defense. The luncheon is to be at 12 o'clock in the Grand ballroom, Hotel La Salle. Mrs. Henry Happ, Wilmette 894-Y-4, is in charge of reservations for the affair.

Miss Virginia Bradford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradford of 956 Greenwood avenue, was one of the New Trier girls who went to Springfield last week for the music supervisors convention.

To Pick Best Play From Nine Entries at Speech School

Judges chosen from among people prominently identified with the drama both in art and commercial circles, will decide Saturday which presentation of a one-act play merits the 1927 Cumnock cup at the Northwestern University School of Speech.

Today, tomorrow and Saturday there will be presentations there by nine visiting troupes of players from that many colleges and universities.

Judges in preliminaries will be Mrs. A. Starr Best, Harold Ehrensperger and Prof. Theodore B. Hinckley of Evanston; Prof. Thomas Wood Stevens, director of the Goodman theater; Virginia Dale of the Chicago Journal; and Miss Alice Gerstenberg, producer and playwright.

Miss Marie Biggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Biggs of 446 Sunset road, entertained twenty-two guests at a dinner dance at the Palmer House April 9.

Mrs. Laura Bowlby of Olney, Ill., visited her sister, Mrs. William D. Cazell of 882 Oak street, over Easter.
