

When It Is Housecleaning Time
Call in Bill the Washington Laundry Man

A HAPPY solution to Housecleaning and all that it symbolizes, is a few words to Bill the Washington Laundry Man. He takes away the things that make Housecleaning a task. Blankets and quilts returned with their fluffy warmth restored; pillows cool and refreshing; curtains beautifully laundered; slip covers that fit and add charm to the cleanliness of the rooms; every rug looks like new again—so bright and cheerful. While you are housecleaning, these things are out of your way. When you have finished they are ready to be used or put away.

A phone call brings Bill. It's Wilmette 145.
