Milan Lusk Is Knighted by Monarch of Roumania

Milan Lusk, violinist and resident of Wilmette, has been given the honor decoration of Chevalier de la Caroana de Roumania by order of King Ferdinand in recognition of his playing at two command performances before Queen Marie at her summer palace in Sinaia.

Milan Lusk

Mr. Lusk received official notice of his Roumanian knighthood, with the information that the insignia are being sent to the Roumanian embassy at Washington, where Mr. Lusk will be officially decorated. In addition to playing for the queen, Mr. Lusk dedicated his composition, "Lady Hamilton Waltz" to Queen Marie. His command concerts were given in the summers of 1924 and 1925.

Mrs. William Salmen with her daughter, Frieda, of 964 Spruce street, is spending this week-end with her daughter, Edna, who attends Frances Scheimer school at Mt. Carroll, Ill. Leonard Company Begins Ambitious Building Program

George Dudley Full, formerly of 484 Provident avenue, Winnetka, moved this week to his new residence at 529 Hawthorne lane, just completed by the E. T. Leonard company, of 556 Center street.

This is a seven-room house of English architecture, in which a most pleasing combination of stone and stucco has been worked into its exterior design and construction. It is the fourth house sold of the six which this firm has built for spring market.

Building for Fall

The E. T. Leonard company, has acquired vacant property for the erection of six more new residences which they have already started for the fall market. All will be on Woodlawn avenue, in Glencoe, four being east of the tracks, and two at Lake avenue. Work has already been started on the east side. The first two of the east-side group will be on lots 59 by 200 feet, both English type houses of eight rooms and three baths, one of stone and stucco and the other of brick and stucco. They will range in price around $30,000.

Gladys Hight Pupils to Give Recital May 18-19

The Gladys Hight School of Dancing is having its spring recital two nights at the Eighth Street theater, Wabash avenue at Eighth street, Chicago, Wednesday and Thursday, May 18 and 19.

This will be the eighth year of Gladys Hight's ballets which she calls "Ballet Unique of 1927."

The program will include a children's ballet, called "Hollywood," and an adult ballet of a hundred people. This will be a bacchanale and will present an adagio group of twenty men and women students.

Miss Hight will sail for a short trip to Europe immediately after the recital and return to conduct her teachers' course in July.
